Back Mountain 9-10 all-stars post 3 wins

The Back Mountain 9-10 year old all-star teams got off to fast starts in the Lower Valley Tournament. Both the American and National League teams posted wins last weekend, including a pair by the American squad.

BACK MT. AMERICAN 6 - NEWPORT 2

Andrew Lohin and Randy Knappman combined on a one-hitter, a bunt single in the third inning, to lift the American's over Newport in the opening round. Brian Vetter led the offensive attack with two hits, including a double, while Pat Barnard and Lloyd Droppers added two singles apiece.

BACK MT. AMERICAN 9 - ST. THERESE'S 4

Darrell Evans and Randy Knappman each had two hits and three RBI's to lead the Back Mountain squad. Andrew Lohin and Knappman combined to limit St. Therese's to just four hits while striking out four batters each in three innings of work.

BACK MT. NATIONAL 18 - NANTICOKE 10

Mike Domzalski banged out four hits to lead an offensive explosion by the National's en route to an easy win over Nanticoke. Matt Eye, Steven Moyer, Josh Katyl and Justin Bicking each had two hits apiece for Back Mountain while Steve Liparella added a double. Bicking, Domzalski and Katyl shared the mound duties for the winners.
