Dallas Middle School students honored

During a recent Awards Day assembly at the Dallas Middle School, three students were honored by the Dallas Education Association with an award certificate and a savings bond.

These students were selected by faculty members for having attained and maintained academic excellence by earning the highest G.P.A. for the first three marking periods in his or her grade level.

The Dallas Middle School faculty began the practice of presenting these DEA awards for academic excellence during the 1991-1992 school year and have made this award a permanent part of the Dallas Middle School Awards assembly.

The Student Achievement Awards Committee is composed of Norine Amesbury, Ellen Boyer, Elaine Felli, Georgia Jenkins and Kathy Wega. The committee compiled awards information throughout the school year.

Local girls attended Rotary camp

Vanessa Wysocki, who will be a junior at Dallas High School, Allison Milunic, who will be a junior at Lake-Lehman Area High School and Gail Morris, who will be a junior at Dallas High School in September, participated in the 1993 Rotary Leaders Camp for Girls which was held June 19-23 on the campus of College Misericordia, Dallas. They were sponsored by the Rotary Club of Dallas after being selected from students nominated by area high school guidance counselors and principals.

The annual five-day Rotary Leaders Camp for Girls introduces girls who are entering the 11th grade to possible career tracks through volunteer speakers, involves them in group discussions of issues of the day, and promotes the development of team work through competition, cooperative games, and the opportunity to live and work together.

Eighty girls were selected for the 1993 Camp, representing clubs throughout Rotary International District 7410, which encompasses 46 clubs in northeastern Pennsylvania.
