Municipal notes

KINGSTON TOWNSHIP

- At its regular August 11 meeting, the supervisors voted to:
 - Approve the first reading of an ordinance setting the speed limit at 25 mph on Bramblewood Drive, County Road and Field Ridge Drive.
 - Pay George and Carol Isaacs and James and Margaret Reinert the balance of $26,071.87 for approximately three acres adjoining the ambulance garage on East Center Street. The total price was $27,500. No plans have been made yet for the property.
 - Deny the request for $1,870.74 made by Michael Kester for reimbursement for installation of a stormwater pipe on his property at Echo Valley Trailer Park. Donald Gavigan and Ben Franklin voted against the motion.
 - Authorize township manager Jeff Box to renew liability insurance policies with Masaychik Agency for $12,223, to advertise for bids to buy a brush chipping machine and to notify Berkheimer Associates that the township will seek proposals from other firms for collection of earned income taxes.
 - Authorize solicitor Ben Jones to file a lien against the property of Charles Waite on Shagbark Drive for cleanup costs associated with violation of the township's vegetation ordinance.
 - Change the September 6 public caucus meeting to September 7, due to the Labor Day holiday.
