

Driver cited after accident sends three to hospitals

According to Kingston Township police, a 1990 Dodge Monaco operated by Margaret Collins, 56, of Dallas and a 1983 Cadillac Cimarron operated by James Davis, 55, of Exeter, were involved in a broadside accident on Pioneer Ave. near the Vonderheid Street intersection Sunday afternoon, August 29, shortly before 1 p.m.

Police said that the Collins vehicle pulled out of the Mount Greenwood Cemetery in front of the Davis vehicle, which struck it on its left side.

Davis and a passenger, Richard Davis, 57, of Hazleton, were transported by the Kingston

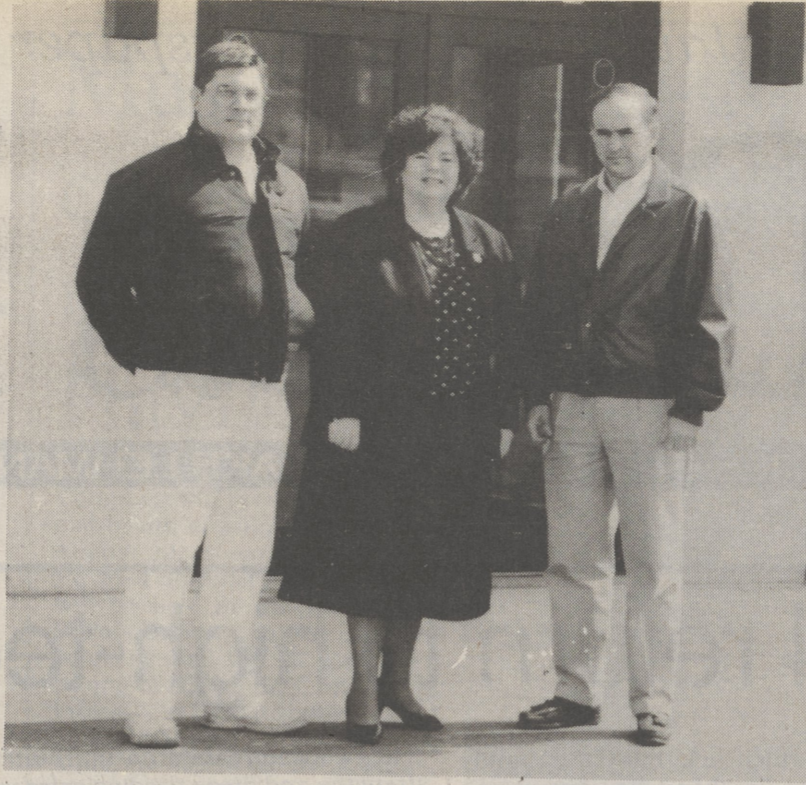

Township ambulance to the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, where they were admitted for observation and released Monday, August 30, according to the report.

Ms. Collins was taken to the Community Medical Center by the Life-Flight helicopter.

Police cited her for improperly entering a roadway.

Kingston Township rescue personnel had to use power tools to extricate the victims from their cars, police said.

Both vehicles sustained heavy damage and were towed from the scene, police said

Grotto golf tourney fights arthritis

Grotto Pizza, Harveys Lake, will hold their annual golf tournament to aid the fight against arthritis on Monday, September 20 at Mill Race Golf Club in Benton, Pa.
