Ballet Theatre to open '93 season

Ballet Theatre Pennsylvania, the third largest Ballet Company in Pennsylvania, opens their 93 season in the newly dedicated, Michel Roux Performance Studio at 239 Schuyler Avenue, Kingston, Sunday, September 19 at 3 p.m. Michel Roux is CEO of Carillon Importers, Ltd., which imports Absolut Vodka and Grand Mariner.

Mr. Roux has sponsored the Company for six years and has underwritten all of Ballet Theatre Pennsylvania's seasons with significant contributions and support. Ballet Theatre Pennsylvania is a national touring company composed of an international ensemble of dancers. This concert performance will feature new works both classical and contemporary that showcase the virtuosity of the dancers. New choreography "CAPRICCIOS", by Trinetta Singleton music by Shostacovich, Piano Concerto No. 2 will feature principal dancers Luis Bravo, Julie Levin and Christina Dippel. Classical Pas de Deux from "GILELLE" and "LE CORSAIRE" will be danced by Russian soloists Natalie Charova, Alexei Charov, Valerie Gontcharov, Ekaterina Chitlkanova and Pavel Kambalov.

This is the first in a concert series the Company will be performing in its new studios. The new format will give the public an opportunity to meet the dancers and ask questions in an informal "talk back session".

Immediately following the performance 4 to 6 p.m., Ballet Theatre Pennsylvania proudly hosts the first area exhibition by Absolut Artist John Pacovsky. John was chosen as one of the Absolut Artists of the 90's by Carillon Importers. This is John's first exhibition in the Wyoming Valley.

At 2 p.m. ticket holders can meet with John Pacovsky, Mary L. Hepner, Artistic Director of Ballet Theatre Pennsylvania, and a representative from Carillon Importers, Ltd. to talk about how Absolut Artists are chosen and what it means to be chosen.

Sunday's events are part of Absolut Awareness Weekend - a weekend of AIDS awareness events to benefit the Wyoming Valley AIDS Council and AMFAR.

Seminars on Saturday, Sept. 18 begin at 9 a.m. and end at 3 p.m. Each day of the two day weekend costs $10. Both days cost $12. Senior Citizens and students are half price. Advanced registration is recommended but not necessary.

For tickets and registration call Ballet Theatre at 283-9682.
