Lehman students score big in talent search

Seventh grade students in the gifted program at Lake-Lehman Middle Level Education Building recently participated in the Johns Hopkins Talent Search.

The purpose of the program is to identify students with exceptional mathematical and/or verbal reasoning abilities in order to provide them with ample opportunities to excel.

These students took the Scholastic Aptitude Test usually given to college bound juniors and seniors.

Michael Casey and Samuel Rhodes traveled to Villanova University to accept state awards for their outstanding performance. Casey received both math and verbal ability and Rhodes was cited for verbal ability.

Certificates of distinction for their high SAT scores have also been awarded to Jonathan Bradbury, Nicole Fallon, Jennifer Klaips, and Joanne White.

In addition the following students have received certificates of participation: Drew Baer, Jessica Elston, Jeffrey Eyet, Valerie Fiore and Ryan Mahle.

Coca-Cola offers 150 college scholarships

Materials for the 1993-94 Coca-Cola Scholars Program are now available in over 19,000 high schools across the nation.

In this merit-based Program, high school seniors can compete for 50 four-year, $20,000 scholarships and 100 four-year $4,000 scholarships, for study at any accredited U.S. college or university. Selection is based on leadership, achievement and commitment, both inside and outside the classroom.

The Coca-Cola Scholars are a very diverse group, representing all 50 states and currently attending more than 215 different colleges and universities across the U.S. Nearly 90% of the Scholars attended public high schools where they were very active in leadership positions and community service.

More information and application for this unique scholarship may be obtained from the scholarship coordinator at the local high school. The application deadline is October 31.
