community. We care about it.

At Option Care, our nurses and pharmacists treat patients who have cancer, infectious diseases and other illnesses in a setting most of them prefer.

Their own homes.

Which means they spend less time in the hospital, and more time living and enjoying life.

Option Care is part of a national network, yet this office is locally owned and operated. So we're very much a part of this community.

And through outside involvement in support groups and community activities, we prove it every day of the year. Because at Option Care, we're in it for the long run.
