Two Kiwanis clubs to install officers

Wednesday, Oct. 6, the Back Mountain Kiwanis and Dallas Kiwanis Clubs will hold their installation of new officers at the Irem Temple Country Club, located in Dallas. Charles Kishbaugh, the new Lt. Governor of District 15 and a member of the Dallas Kiwanis Club will administer the oath of office to both clubs new officers.

Joseph Schwartz will take the oath of President for the Dallas Kiwanis and John Rogers will take the oath of President for the Back Mountain Kiwanis. All members of both clubs are asked to attend and make reservations with their prospective clubs representatives.

The installation will begin at 6 p.m. with dinner followed by the installation of officers of both clubs. The Dallas Club will then hold a short business meeting and then a social gathering will follow.

W-B General Hospital seeks volunteers

The Wilkes-Barre General Hospital campus of Wyoming Valley Health Care System, Inc. is currently seeking men and women to join its volunteer corps. Nearly 500 individuals participate in the hospital's volunteer program, and each plays an important role as a member of the health care delivery team. In addition to staffing the gift shop, in-service desk and hospitality cart, volunteers also assist in the Surgical Services, Outpatient Testing, Escort Services, and Admission Departments.

Volunteering can be a rewarding experience which provides an opportunity for individuals to learn new skills, develop new interests and make new friends. For more information about joining the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital campus volunteer corps, please call the Volunteer Services Department at 829-8111 ext. 3029.
