

Lehman Class of '43 to hold 50th reunion October 23

A 50th Class Reunion is being planned for friends and graduates of Lehman, Jackson, Ross High School, Class of 1943.

It will be held at the Castle Inn, Memorial Highway, Dallas on October 23, 1993 at 6 p.m. The cost is $15. Some of us have not seen one another since our "School Days" at good old Lehman High.

It would be nice to have a record crowd, so invite anyone who graduated, went to Lehman, or a guest to join us and help celebrate this happy occasion.

We need addresses for Theresa Belles, Kathleen Ruznak, Emily Palka, Eddie Blasco, Ernest Cumings, Catherine Ashton.

A planning meeting will be held October 14, 7 p.m. at Mark II Restaurant, Dallas.

Please R.S.V.P. by October 16, 1993.

Edythe Swan Bonning, 28 Jackson Church Road, Shavertown, PA 18708, 675-3145 or Edna Drabick Johnson, RR 2, Box 306, Dallas, PA 18612, 675-3595.

Cider Painters to exhibit at King's College this month

The Cider Painters of America, a national organization of artists who create paintings that are 3 inches by 5 inches in size will be exhibiting at the Kilburn Gallery (Sheehy Student Center) King's College through October 31.

Started in Dallas, Pennsylvania, this organization has grown to a national level of renowned artists. This year marks their 10th anniversary and to celebrate, a special exhibit of 491 paintings will be on display.

Regular gallery hours are weekdays, 12 noon to 5 p.m. and weekends from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. A gala opening reception was held Sunday, Oct. 3.

FEATURED HISTORIC HOME - Pictured is Sweetland Hall, Wyoming Seminary. Now the residence of boarding girls and faculty members, Sweetland Hall was built in 1853 on the site of the original Wyoming Seminary building. The three-wing building, of which Sweetland Hall is the south wing, was the main Wyoming Seminary building throughout most of the 19th century and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Sweetland Parlors, on the first floor was—and continues to be—the "parlor" where Seminary girls could visit with their dates.

Historical Society to hold annual house tour Oct. 16

The Wyoming Historical and Geological Society has set the date of its annual tour for Saturday, October 16 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Special highlight of this year's event will be the historic campus of Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School, Kingston, which will be celebrating its sesquicentennial (150th) anniversary beginning this year.

Buildings included in the tour will be the Wyoming Seminary's President's House, Sweetland Hall, the Nelson Belltower, Nesbitt faculty residence, the Buckingham Performing Arts Center, the Stetler Learning Resources Center, the residence of John and Catherine Shafer.

Other buildings available for touring surround the school's campus. They are the Biscontini home, the home of Jay and Molly Crossin, The Church of Christ

Uniting, Market Street Courtyard, the office building housed on the corner of Market and Maple Streets and St. Ignatius Roman Catholic Church. The church will be open to visitors between 10 a.m. and noon only.

Maps may be picked up with tickets. On the day of the tour, maps will be available at Wyoming Seminary, Sprague Avenue (between Hoyt and Market Streets). Luncheon will be served in Wyoming Seminary's Fleck Hall (on Sprague Avenue) between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. The menu includes sliced turkey or tuna salad served with a croissant; fruit cup, salad and dessert.
