

SCORE and SBA plan small business workshop Oct. 20

SCORE Chapter counselors are shown at a planning for their upcoming workshop, "Starting and Managing A Small Business" which will be held on October 20 at the Holiday Inn, Wilkes-Barre. This is an all day workshop for people who are thinking of going into business or have done so recently and need assistance.

The workshop will cover legal aspects, taxes and records, insurance, marketing organizational structure and financing available. The cost of the workshop is $25, which includes lunch, refreshments and instructional materials. The Service of Retired Executives (SCORE) is a resource for individuals who want to start a small business or an existing business in need of assistance. SCORE members are retired business or professional people with experience in business that can be of great help in solving problems. This service is free and is sponsored by the Small Business Administration.

For information contact SCORE or SBA, 20 North Pennsylvania Avenue, Wilkes-Barre, 18701-3489. Telephone (717) 826-6502.

Suzuki music students to give concerts October 24

Seventy valley students ages 4 to adult will perform in two Suzuki Concerts at the Buckingham Performing Arts Center of Wyoming Seminary, Sprague Avenue, Kingston, on Sunday, Oct. 24 at 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. The concerts are free and open to the public.

The students study violin, viola and cello in the Suzuki method which stresses parent involvement in practice and lessons and includes group classes every two weeks.

This concert will feature each of the students performing a solo from memory with accompaniment. Suzuki School For Strings director Lillian T. Supplee, her daughters, Jule Supplee Sipler, Jean Supplee Brubaker and son-in-law Peter Brubaker all teach in the school and perform with the Northeastern Philharmonic Orchestra.

The Suzuki School For Strings is located at the F.L. Peterson Arts Center on Union Street in Kingston. Parents interested in enrolling their children as young as four years old may call the school at 287-6671 to schedule a lesson observation and to talk to one of the teachers.

Folk festival October 14-17

"The Folk Art of Many Lands" will be the theme of this year's Luzerne County Folk Festival. The 18th annual celebration of this region's ethnic diversity will be held October 14th through 17th at the Kingston Armory.

The festival will feature four distinct arenas: cultural heritage displays, traditional crafts and demonstrations, international entertainment, and the international food court. Committees representing over 25 nationalities have been planning this event throughout the summer and advance tickets are available.

The Cultural Council of Northeast Pennsylvania, founded by the late Paul H. Lauer, is the sponsor of this multicultural weekend. A full program of traditional song, music, and dance will be presented throughout the four days of celebration.

This year's festival hours are: Thursday and Friday October 14th and 15th, from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m.; Saturday October 16th 1:00 to 10:00 pm; and Sunday October 17th, noon to 7:00 p.m. Special programs for elementary school children are planned for Friday morning. A family day program is being arranged for Saturday af-

MR. AND MRS. GREGG PEACHEY

Eileen P. Nagy exchanges vows with Gregg Peachey

Eileen Patricia Nagy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nagy of Dallas and Gregg Alan Peachey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Peachey of Belleville, Pennsylvania, were united in marriage on August 21, 1993. Rev. Robert C. Murdock performed the double ring ceremony at Trinity Presbyterian Church, Dallas.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose her sister Mary Ellen Caswell of Orlando, Florida as her matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Jacqueline Biscontini, of Dallas and Meg Gorgone Pitner of Indiana, Pennsylvania. Gia Biscontini serve as a junior bridesmaid.

The best man was Andrew Yeo of Fairfax, Virginia. Ushers were Mark Frankhauser of Williamsport and Todd Peachey, nephew of the groom, of Carlisle. Junior usher was Adrian Biscontini of Dallas.

An evening dinner reception was held at Appletree Terrace, Newberry Estates. The parents of the groom hosted a rehearsal dinner at Picketts Charge.

The bride is a graduate of Dallas High School and Pennsylvania State University with a B.S. in Elementary Education. She teaches fifth grade in the Central Bucks School District, New Britain, Pennsylvania. The groom is a graduate of Kishocoquillas High School and Pennsylvania State University with a B.S. in Management. He is employed at Beck Inc., Newtown, Pennsylvania as a Materials Manager.

Following a honeymoon trip to New England, the new couple are residing in Horsham.

Dr. Fields will speak at Unitarian meeting

Dr. David Fields of Shavertown will be the speaker on Sunday, October 17 at 10 a.m. at the Unitarian-Universalist Church of Wyoming Valley. Dr. Fields' topic, "Ode to Christianity," will focus on the importance of appreciating Christian values and history in the Unitarian-Universalist religion. There will be an opportunity for discussion after the service. The local congregation meets in the auditorium of the Montessori School, Maple and Market streets, Kingston. A program for children is provided.

Clark in Navy ceremony

Navy Petty Officer 3rd Class Adam D. Clark, son of Dawn K. Clark, RR 3, Harveys Lake, recently participated in a decommissioning ceremony aboard the training aircraft carrier USS Forrester, homeported in Pensacola, Fla.

The Navy is decommissioning many older ships and replacing them with fewer but more capable ships in the fleet. Through a carefully structured plan to "right size" its force, newer, technologically superior ships will be part of the smaller Navy and Marine Corps team to operate in forward, littoral regions, from the sea.

The 1990 graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, Lehman, joined the Navy in September, 1990.
