A lonely dinosaur visits Music Box

His name isn't Barney, and he doesn't come from Jurassic Park. He's Sidney, a purple polka-dotted baby dinosaur, and he's traveled eons to visit the Music Box Dinner Playhouse in "Nobody Loves A Dinosaur", to be presented Oct. 22, 23, 24. Sidney's been here before once in 1989 and again in 1991, and because dinosaurs are more popular than ever, this very friendly, wise, and musical "Snoutasaurus" returns to delight children once again.

The price of admission is $6.50, which includes a McDonald's Fun Meal. Friday performance is at 6 p.m. Saturday performances are 1 and 5 p.m. and Sunday performance is at 1 p.m. Special "school day" performances are scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 27, at 10 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Group rates are available for groups of 25 or more. Early reservations are strongly suggested.

After each performance, children will have the opportunity to meet Sidney and the rest of cast, and tickets will be sold for kids to have their photographs taken with stars. For further information, and to make reservations, call the box office at 283-2195. The Music Box Dinner Playhouse is located at 196 Hughes St., Swoyersville.

IN A TIME LONG GONE BY - Sidney the dinosaur coaxes young Carg Cro-Magnon and North Neanderthal, once enemies, to become friends in Nobody Loves a Dinosaur, playing at the Music Box Dinner Theatre October 22-24.
