Beth Hartshorne will dance in Nutcracker

Beth Hartshorne, 13 year old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Don Hartshorne of Orange Rd., Dallas will play the part of the Sugar Plum Fairy in Northeastern Pennsylvania Academy of Dancing's Nutcracker Ballet, to be presented Sunday, Nov. 21 at the Irem Temple in Wilkes-Barre.

Beth is an 8th grade student at Dallas Middle School and is presently studying pointe, classical ballet, lyrical, tap and jazz under renowned choreographer and former Rockette Barbara Woronko-Anzalone, who lives in the Back Mountain.

In addition to playing the part of the Sugar Plum Fairy, Beth will also play the parts of the Doll in Act I, a Snowflake, Act I, and Flower, Act II.

Beth is one of the Bobettes, an award-winning dance group from the Academy that has won numerous awards in local and national dance competitions.

The Nutcracker Ballet will begin at 2 p.m. and give a matinee performance at the Irem Temple in downtown Wilkes-Barre.

W.V. Oratorio Society to present concert Nov. 20

The Wyoming Valley Oratorio Society will present a concert, Saturday, Nov. 20 at 7:30 p.m. at St. Stephen's Church, 35 S. Franklin Street in Wilkes-Barre.

Under the direction of Dr. Stephen E. Barton, the chorus, soloists and orchestra will perform Haydn's "Missa brevis St. Joannis de Deo," Handel's Coronation Anthems I & II - "Zadok the Priest" and "The King Shall Rejoice" and Brahms "Liebeslieder Walzer" (Lovesong Waltzes).

Stephen Barton is the music director of the Wyoming Valley Oratorio Society, the Singers' Guild of Scranton and the Wyoming County Chorale in Tunkhannock. He is founder and music director of Zusammen, a new professional chamber chorus, and serves as choirmaster of St. Peter's Cathedral in Scranton.

Soloists for this concert include Lynda Krehbiel-McLain, Carol Tome, Albert Purdy and Francis McMullen. Mrs. McLain, soprano, is a seasoned recitalist, vocal coach, director and vocal instructor maintaining a studio in Scranton presently located in the Center For Musical Studies. She appeared as guest soloist in last December's WVOS concert as well as its joint concert last spring - Tribute to Bernstein.

Tickets may be purchased in advance by calling 823-5032 or at the door the night of the performance. For those attending the concert, there will be free parking in the Mellon Bank Parkade across the street from St. Stephen's. This concert is funded in part by a grant from the PA Council on the Arts.
