

Naylor, Lemmond families to host 21st Community Dinner

The 21st Annual Naylor-Lemmond Community Thanksgiving Dinner will be held on Thanksgiving Day at the First United Methodist Church of Wilkes-Barre.

According to Dinner Coordinator Shawn Murphy, the dinner is open to anyone who would like to share Thanksgiving with friends—possibly friends they have not yet met. The dinner is offered without charge.

Prepared annually by a host of volunteers, the community dinner honors the memory of Ms.

Murphy's grandfather, Benjamin E. Naylor, and Ruth and Charles Lemmond, Sr., parents of Senator Charles D. Lemmond, Jr.

Transportation is available through the volunteer efforts of drivers employed by the County transportation division.

Reservations for the dinner and for transportation are required. Persons interested in learning more about the dinner or those desiring to make reservations, are encouraged to call the church office at 822-6817.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH E. MACULLOCH, SR.

Patricia E. Finley weds Kenneth E. Maculloch, Sr.

Patricia E. Finley and Kenneth E. Maculloch Sr. were joined in marriage on October 2, 1993 at Carverton United Methodist Church, West Wyoming.

The Reverend Jack Cox officiated at the double ring ceremony. Wedding attendants were Kristy Yankovich and Stasia Maculloch, daughters of the bride and groom. John Gabriel, son of the bride, Kenneth Maculloch II and Charles Maculloch, sons of the groom were also in attendance.

Mrs. Maculloch is the daughter of Paul J. Finley, New York City and the late Doris Finley of Plymouth. She is the owner of Pat Finley's Friendly Food, an Independent Shaklee Distributorship and serves on the Executive Committee of the Northeastern Group of the Sierra Club.

Maculloch is the son of Eleanor Maculloch of Dallas and the late John Maculloch. He is employed as a technician at Procter and Gamble, Mehoopany.

An afternoon reception was held for family and friends at the church hall following the ceremony. After a honeymoon trip to New England, the couple is living in Sweet Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyes will note 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoyes of Shavertown will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Thanksgiving Day.

They were married Thanksgiving Day in 1943 at the home of the bride's parents with the Rev. Chester H. Evans officiating. Their attendants were Mrs. Hoyes's sister Clara Martin Hoyes and Mr. Hoyes's brother George F. Hoyes.

Mrs. Hoyes, the former Gertrude Martin, is a daughter of the late William and Clara Martin of Peckville, Pa. and is retired from Blue Cross of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Mr. Hoyes is the son of the late Robert Hoyes and Pearl Hoyes who is a resident of the Kingston Manor Personal Care Center. He is retired from Woolworth Company.

They are the parents of Richard Hoyes, Dallas; Ellyn Fortney, Falls; Roger Hoyes, Forty Fort; and Robert Hoyes, Sinking Springs, PA. They also have 10 grandchildren. They will celebrate with a family dinner at Irem Temple Country Club given by their children.

Transportation available to John Heinz center in Dallas

Free transportation is now being offered at the new John Heinz Institute Outpatient Clinic in Dallas. Located in the 309-415 Plaza, across from the Dallas Shopping Center, the clinic provides physical and occupational therapy. The free transportation is being offered to "better the residents of the Back Mountain" according to Ann Pat Sullivan, newly appointed outpatient coordinator for the John Heinz Institute.

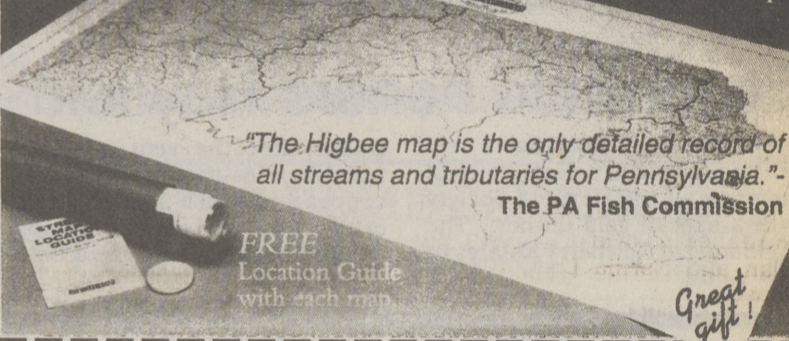

To be treated at the John Heinz clinic, people need to be referred by their physician or they just need to bring their prescription for therapy to the clinic and they will be scheduled to start as early as the following day.

People interested in free transportation should call 826-3900 for more information and scheduling. The Dallas clinic is open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. and appointments can be made by calling 674-5075.
