

Boy Scouts to honor Cece McCarthy

The 1993 Salute to Northeastern Pennsylvania Women Luncheon, hosted by the Exploring Division of the Northeastern Pennsylvania Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held Wednesday, Dec. 8, 12:15 p.m. at the Lackawanna Station, Scranton.

CECE MCCARTHY

Exploring is the High-School young adult program of the Boy Scouts of America. Locally, Exploring boasts over 1500 young men and women enrolled in Career Interest, High Adventure, or Career Awareness programs throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania.

The Distinguished Honorees for this year's luncheon are Cece McCarthy of Trucksville and Sister Mary Reap, I.H.M., President of Marywood College. These two women are being recognized for their outstanding contributions to their communities and for their exemplary participating citizenship in Northeastern Pennsylvania, serving as positive role models for all young adults.

Charie Aponick of Shavertown and Mary Ellen Coleman of Scranton are the 1993 Co-Chairwomen and have announced that 500 people are expected to be in attendance, including guest speakers and Explorers.

They are invited to attend the region's premiere event which applauds the community contributions of all women throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania, and in particular Cece McCarthy and Sister Mary Reap. Reservations will be accepted at the Scout Office, 451-0350 until Monday, Dec. 6. The price of the event is $50 per person.

Ellen M. Larkin exchanges vows with Michael Havrilla

Ellen M. Larkin and Dr. Michael A. Havrilla were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony performed September 11, 1993 by Reverend William Culnane at St. Dominic's Church, Wilkes-Barre.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Larkin, Wilkes-Barre. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Havrilla, Shavertown.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose her niece, Colleen Martin as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Susan Waserott, sister of the groom, and Colleen Flaherty. Edward R. Havrilla, brother of the groom was best man. Ushers were Paul Waserott III and Mark Flaherty.

An evening cocktail hour and dinner reception was held at the Golden Palace, Parsons. A rehearsal party was hosted by the parents of the groom at Perugino's Restaurant, Luzerne. The bride was honored at a shower given by mothers' of the bride and groom and bridal attendants at Wilkes-Barre American Legion.

Mrs. Havrilla is a graduate of Coughlin High School. She is employed by Lehigh Valley Ophthalmic Associates, Allentown. Dr. Havrilla is a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School and Wilkes University where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Biology. He received his Doctor of Optometry from the Pennsylvania College of Optometry. He is an optometrist at Total Vision Care, Whitehall, Pa.

Following a Florida honeymoon the couple will live in Whitehall.

BMT Library Book Club to hold Christmas Tea Dec. 20

The Book Club of the Back Mountain Memorial Library will have its annual Christmas Tea on Monday, Dec. 20 at 1:30 in the reading room at the library. After a very short business meeting, the program will be presented by a special Handbell Quartet from the Shavertown United Methodist Church, playing several Christmas selections on handbells. The audience will then be invited to participate in a group series of carols with each person playing one bell at a specific time. Members of the quartet include Mary Lou Swingle, Kim Hogans, Kathy Berkey and Nancy Kozemchak.

Refreshments will be served with cookies and candies, coffee, tea and holiday punch. Members of the Back Mountain community are invited to attend this Christmas celebration at the library.

Quality service recognized

The Trucksville Dog & Cat Hospital has again received accreditation following a comprehensive evaluation by the American Animal Hospital Association. The evaluation includes a quality assessment review of the clinic's facility, medical equipment, practice methods and pet health care management.

small animal veterinary facilities in the United States are hospital members of the association. In order to maintain accredited status, the Trucksville Dog & Cat Hospital must continue to be evaluated regularly by the association's trained consultants.
