Dallas Middle School students observe Veterans' Day

Recently the students of the Dallas Middle School attended an assembly program presented in honor of Veteran's Day. The program began with a drum march and flag presentation. The sixth grade chorus sang a patriotic song, and school board member Mr. Jack Cleary led the assembly in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Student council president Jennifer Moran introduced the speakers. School board member Mr. John George told the students about the American Legion's various activities. School director Mr. Thomas Landon discussed the importance of the military reserve.

The topic which WBRE newscaster Mr. Keith Martin addressed was the great concern over service personnel who are missing in action. Martin told the students that they can also serve the community by giving of their time and energy through their school, church or scout groups.

The program concluded with the flag being retired while Taps was played.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Kathy Wega.

HONORING VETERANS - Participating in Dallas Middle School's Veterans' Day observance are: Mr. Keith Martin, Jennifer Moran, Jason Vodzak, Paul Carlson, Peter Redmond, Matthew Pacovsky, Brian Blase and Mr. Anthony Martinelli, Dallas Middle School principal.
