Sortinos honored with 1993 Misericordia Trustee Award

College Misericordia recently presented its 1993 Trustee Associates Award to Vincent G. Sortino and Maria Parodi Sortino, of Dallas, for their service, dedication and leadership to Misericordia and the community.

The eighth annual award was presented at Misericordia's Trustee Associates Dinner at Newberry Estates, Dallas.

Sortino was elected to the College's Board of Trustees in 1991 and served as vice-chair of the Board for the 1992-93 academic year. He also served as vice-chair of the Board Finance Committee and as a member of the Presidential Search Committee in 1991-92.

Sortino has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Northeastern Pennsylvania Philharmonic, the Osterhout Free Library, and the United Way of Wyoming Valley. He also was co-chair of the Council for Workforce Preparation and served as Board vice-chair of the Greater Wilkes-Barre Committee for Economic Growth.

Sortino, vice president for Wilkes-Barre Financial Services, Nabisco Foods Group, is a graduate of Fordham University with a bachelor's degree in accounting.

He also holds a Master of Business Administration degree from Baruch College and served as assistant professor of business management at New York University for 11 years.

Mrs. Sortino most recently was a realtor in New York City and has been active with the School of American Ballet. She is a graduate of Divine Maestro and studied at Catholic University in Lima, Peru.
