

Coupon sale helps kids with asthma

The American Lung Association of the Lehigh Valley (ALALV) is promoting Fun Pacs, a joint project with area Burger King restaurants and KISS 102.3 FM. Each Fun Pac costs $1.00 and contains 10 valentines, which can be redeemed for free French fries at participating Burger Kings anytime between February 14 and March 31, 1994. The colorful valentine coupons will be on sale beginning January 12 at area Burger Kings, including the one in Shavertown.

They will also be available at the ALALV office at 71 North Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre.

All Fun Pac proceeds will help support and fund local programs for children with asthma, including educational programs which teach them how to manage the disease and minimize its sometimes debilitating effects.

The Association conducts family asthma sessions and school in-services, and provides educational material to families.

And this summer ALALV will hold its first weekend camp for children with asthma.

For additional information about Valentine Fun Pacs and living with asthma, call the local ALA office at 717-823-2212.
