congratulate
George E. Cimochoowski, M.D., Chief of Cardiac Surgery, Wilkes-Barre General Hospital Campus and the entire Physician and Hospital Cardiac Surgery Team for achieving the outstanding results reported in the Pennsylvania Health Care Cost Containment Council's Annual Consumer Guide to Coronary Artery Bypass Graft Surgery

- Ranked number one of Pennsylvania's 35 Cardiac Surgery programs in risk adjusted mortality (1.58 percent).
- One of only three programs in the state to have lower than anticipated mortality.
- Among the lowest average cost for the procedure in the state.
- The only program in the state to lower its charges for bypass surgery over last year's report.
