

Wilkes will host business careers seminar April 8

The Wilkes University School of Business, Society and Public Policy will host "Careers in Business", a seminar for high school juniors and seniors interested in careers in business and the related areas of management, marketing, finance, economics, information systems, law, accounting, social services, health administration, public administration and government service.

The seminar will be held on Friday, April 8 from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Arnaud C. Marts Center, 274 S. Franklin St., Wilkes-Barre.

The seminar will provide students with the opportunity to meet with practicing professionals in organizations; discuss careers, academic preparation, job search techniques and visit the Wilkes University campus.

Admission to the seminar is free and open to the public. High school students should visit their guidance counselors or contact the University at 717-831-4700 for more information. Non-traditional students are encouraged to attend.

Diversity Institute holds annual dinner

The Diversity Institute at College Misericordia recently hosted the third annual Celebration of Diversity Dinner, prior to a performance on campus of Afro-Caribbean music by Humano. The Institute serves as a focal point to organize and provide educational and leadership resources to the community, to promote multicultural understanding and to work toward the elimination of all forms of discrimination.

About 60 people attended the dinner.

Bowersox renews professional registration

Lake-Lehman School District board secretary/business manager Raymond C. Bowersox, has been renewed as a Pennsylvania Registered School Business Official by the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Association of School Business Officials. Bowersox has been employed by the district since March, 1977.

In order to be granted professional registered status, a school business official must meet high personal, ethical and professional standards established for the registration program. Once attained, the registration must be renewed every four years through a program of professional development.

PASBO is the state professional association of school business officials whose responsibilities include the business and service functions of public and non-public schools. PASBO is affiliated with the Association of School Business Officials International.

Exchange program seeks hosts

The American International Youth Student Exchange Program, a non-profit high school foreign exchange program, offers qualified students a chance to spend a summer, semester or school year with a host family in America or abroad.

American host families are being sought for 25 students from high schools in Europe and other foreign countries for the coming school year. Students will arrive in the United States in late August, attend the local school and return home in late June next year.

The students, all fluent in English, have been screened by their school counselors in their home country and will receive medical insurance and spending money.

Most families are also being sought for 25 European and foreign students, age 16 and 17 for a duration of 4 to 6 weeks in the upcoming summer.

All families hosting a student for the summer, semester and year can deduct $50 a month for income tax purposes.

Interested students and families are asked to please contact the AIYSEP International Headquarters: Office of the Director, 200 Round Hill Road, Tiburon, CA 94920; 415-499-7669 or 1-800-347-7575.
