

Grand opening held at Jack Williams tire store

Jack Williams Tire Company, one of the largest tire distributors in Northeast Pennsylvania, held the grand opening of their newest service center in Dallas on March 26. The new service center is the tenth for the Jack Williams chain.

The new service center, located at 40 Memorial Highway (next to the Mark II Restaurant), occupies 5,000 square feet of space, with six service bays and employs the newest state-of-the-art diagnostic and service equipment. One key feature of the new facility is a comfortable, well-appointed customer service area.

The new Dallas location offers numerous tire lines. In addition to tires, car care services are also offered, including tune ups, alignments, state inspections, lube oil and filter changes, brakes, shocks, struts, belts, hoses and mufflers.

The company has recently become affiliated with American Car Care Centers. A nationwide network of independent tire and auto centers who have joined together to provide nationwide tire and service warranties, a nationwide credit card, and the benefits of nationwide buying power.

Jack Williams Tire Co. was established by Jack Williams, Sr. in 1929 and has experienced continual growth and expansion throughout the company's 65 year history, recently opening other locations in Selinsgrove and Scranton.

Corporate headquarters are located in Moosic in the Rocky Glen Industrial Park. It houses the main office, a large warehouse, a retail unit, complete truck tire center, Oliver "Tuff-Care" retread division, off-the-road division, wholesale division, as well as a complete auto parts division.

Other locations include Wyoming Avenue in Kingston, Route 315 in Wilkes-Barre, Front St. in Berwick, Route 611 in Stroudsburg, Sixth St. in Shamokin, North Church St. in Hazleton, Route 11 & 15, in Selinsgrove and Wyoming Ave. in Scranton.

Man killed by falling tree

According to Dallas Borough police, Frank Henry, 31, of RR 4 Tunkhannock, was accidentally killed March 22 shortly after 6 p.m. while clearing trees on property owned by Edward Luksa, Jr., on Reservoir Road.

Witnesses told police that Henry, who was not wearing a hard hat, had cut a tree, which broke off the top of a second tree as it fell. The second tree struck Henry in the side of the head, according to the police report.

Henry was pronounced dead at the scene by deputy coroner Swanson.

Register to vote by April 11

Residents wishing to vote in the May 10 primary election should note the following deadlines from the Luzerne County Election Bureau:

- April 11: all voter registration applications must be in the Election Bureau's office by 4:30 p.m.

- May 3: all applications for absentee ballots must be in the Election Bureau's office by 4:30 p.m.

- May 10: primary election. Voter registration applications are available at The Dallas Post, 45 Main Road, Dallas Township.

Correction

A photo caption on last week's front page was incorrect. The woman photographed with Arline Rood was Eva McGuire, not Louise Colwell. All three have recently turned 90.

Honored for service

Jan Goeringer, Dallas, left, accepts plaque from Debi Zielinski, for service as president of Luzerne County Dental Alliance during the 1993-94 term.

The ceremony was part of the Presidential Honors Dinner-Dance, held by Luzerne County Dental Society, at Westmoreland Club, Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. Goeringer is married to Dr. Bruce Goeringer, Dallas dentist.

perback and Center Hill/Upper Demunds/Hildebrandt roads. There also will be new intersections along Route 415 at Center Hill Road and Route 118.

The federal grant was obtained by the Traffic Management Association and Representative Phyllis Mundy in response to concerns about increased traffic and more heavy trucks using Routes 309 and 415 as a shortcut to points north after the completion of the Cross Valley Expressway.
