

Children's Theater Festival, activities will be May 18-20

The seventh annual NE Pennsylvania International Children's Theater Festival will be held May 18-20 at the F.M. Kirby Center and the Darte Center.

Popular over the years with teachers, parents and children, the Festival offers a taste of other cultures in the form of entertainment geared specifically to children ages 3-10.

The Festival will also offer Playworks at the Kingston Armory, hands-on craft and crafts that relate to the different theater productions as well as festive entertainment.

Its location and set-up also offers the children and adults a place to relax for lunch and take a break between shows. Food vendors are available for those who have not brought their own lunches.

Tickets for the performance can be purchased from the F.M. Kirby Center Box Office at 826-1100. They are $4.50 per show in advance, $5 at the door. Group rates are available by calling 823-4599. A schedule of performance times follows:

May 18 and May 20, 9:15 a.m., Dinokid, F.M. Kirby Center; 9:15 a.m. But, I'm Just a Kid, Darte Center.

Dallas artist's paintings of Hawaii are now on display

A collection of watercolor paintings by Dallas resident Charlotte Arbogast featuring scenes from the Hawaiian Islands are currently on display in the lobby of Mellon Bank, Main Street, Dallas, through the end of May.

The paintings are the result of her winter trip to Hawaii, where she sketched and painted every day for an entire month while exploring the islands of Oahu, Maui and Kauai.

Arbogast visited galleries, talked with Hawaiian artists, and studied Hawaiian art history and folklore in order to produce the floral studies, colorful fish and landscapes.

Arbogast works in watercolor, acrylic and pen and ink and is also an accomplished photographer, who has exhibited many of her photographic compositions in the past.

Arbogast is a member of the Cider Painters of America and the Pennsylvania En Plein Air Society. She has had several pieces of her artwork published as greeting cards and calendar illustrations.

A resident of Dallas, she and her husband, Karl, are the parents of two grown sons.

The public is invited to view this exhibit during normal banking hours through the end of May.

Wojciechowski recognized for service by Lions Club

Stanley Wojciechowski of Lake Silkworth has been named a Melvin Jones Fellow by Lions Clubs International Foundation, in recognition of his commitment to serving the world community. Named for the founder of Lions Clubs International, Melvin Jones, the fellowship is the foundation's highest honor. It is a recognition of a commitment to humanitarian services.

Stanley Wojciechowski is a member of the Lake Silkworth Area Lions Club. He recently received a finely crafted plaque and lapel pin acknowledging his dedication to the foundation's humanitarian goals.

As a Melvin Jones Fellow, Wojciechowski becomes part of a growing network of individuals who are committed to improving the quality of life for people locally and in communities around the world.

Lions Clubs International is the world's largest service club organization numbering more than 1.4 million members. As the charitable arm of the association, Lions Clubs International Foundation acts as steward of the financial resources that are disbursed for humanitarian causes.
