

Roberts and grandson will speak at Trucksville Church

Gordon Roberts and his grandson, Harold Roberts, Jr., will be the guest speakers at the Trucksville United Methodist Church June 12, at the 9 a.m. worship service.

Gordon, a retired local businessman, has been a certified lay speaker for eight years and has preached in various churches in the Wilkes-Barre District.

Harold, a sophomore at Lake-Lehman High School, has recently completed the advanced lay-speaker's course and is also a certified lay speaker.

Both men are members of the Trucksville United Methodist Church and are active in the Sunday School programs.

Harold is also a member of the Trucksville United Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Trucksville United Methodist Church, celebrating its 150th Anniversary, has a summer schedule of one worship service at 9 a.m., June 12 through September 4.

St. Luke's plans centennial celebration

St. Luke's Reformation Lutheran Church of Noxen has been awarded a $500 grant from Aid Association for Lutherans (AAL) to help the congregation celebrate its 100th anniversary, June 26, 1994.

Making the presentation for the AAL was Dave Morris, Representative from the AAL of the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre district to Robert Z. Belles, Vice-President of St. Luke's Reformation Church Council.

The money will be used for the anniversary celebration, which will be held on Sunday, June 26, starting with a worship service at 11 a.m. with the Sacrament of Holy Communion and continuing with a buffet luncheon at 1 p.m. at the church parish hall.

St. Luke's began services for children in the early 1890's at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Mosser. When this group grew too large to be comfortably handled in the Mosser living room, a meeting place was prepared in the Tannery.

From Sunday School sessions grew the idea of a church. It was arranged to invite ministers and theological students to conduct Lutheran services more or less regularly.

This service grew to such an extent that the group decided to call a pastor. The first regularly called pastor was the Rev. H.F.J. Seneker.

Pastor Seneker was called to the "Noxen Mission" and on June 10, 1894 preached his first sermon to an interested group of Lutherans who met in the Tan-tery. The Sunday School still meets each Sunday at 9:45.

The church is presently served by Retired Pastor David Williams and his wife Bertha, who live in Pikes Creek. All present and former members and friends are invited to join in celebrating this milestone in history.

Anyone with pictures or information concerning the church may contact Ethel Jones, 298-2344, Chairman of the Anniversary Committee or Martha Macialek, Chairman of the Historical Committee.

For more information on the service or luncheon call: 298-2223, 298-2332 or 298-2256. Luncheon reservations will be accepted until June 5.

LCCC names Runner to Foundation Directors Board

William A. Runner, Jr., vice president of public finance within First Eastern Bank's Capital Markets Group, has been named to the Luzerne County Community College Foundation Board of Directors.

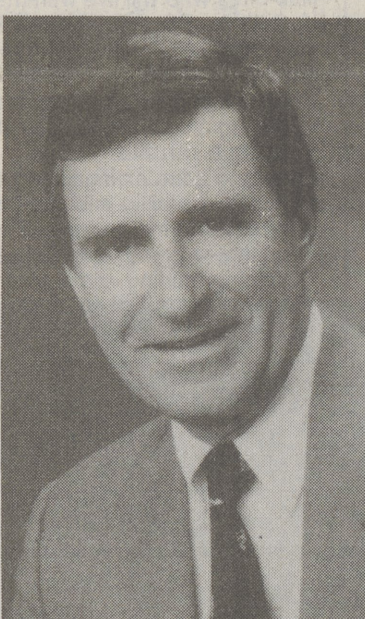

The Foundation is composed of community leaders who volunteer their time and expertise to foster the growth, progress and general welfare of Luzerne County Community College.

One of Runner's first activities as a foundation board member will be to work on the annual corporate dinner in support of the College's Fund For Excellence, slated for June 8.

Runner has over 30 years experience in banking and finance. He joined First Eastern's Capital Markets Group in 1980 as a vice president in charge of customer service, sales and sales management, and was also the bank's municipal bond and note underwriter.

A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Runner holds an A.B.A. degree in commerce and finance, and is also a graduate of the Institute of Investment Banking.

Residents of Shavertown, Runner and his wife Joanne, are the parents of two grown sons, William III and Gregory.
