There's a barnful of antiques

Antiques enthusiasts are sure to find many interesting and unusual pieces at the auction.

from the late 1890's and early 1900's," Ashbridge said. "We also have two beautiful Cone With the Wind-style lamps with reverse-painted glass shades."

Whether their intent is buying a special piece or simply admiring fascinating old items, visitors will be sure to enjoy the many offerings for sale this year.

In the furniture area, two Victorian side chairs with velvet seats, two marble-top tables, a jelly cupboard, a marble-top buffet and two blanket chests are special finds.

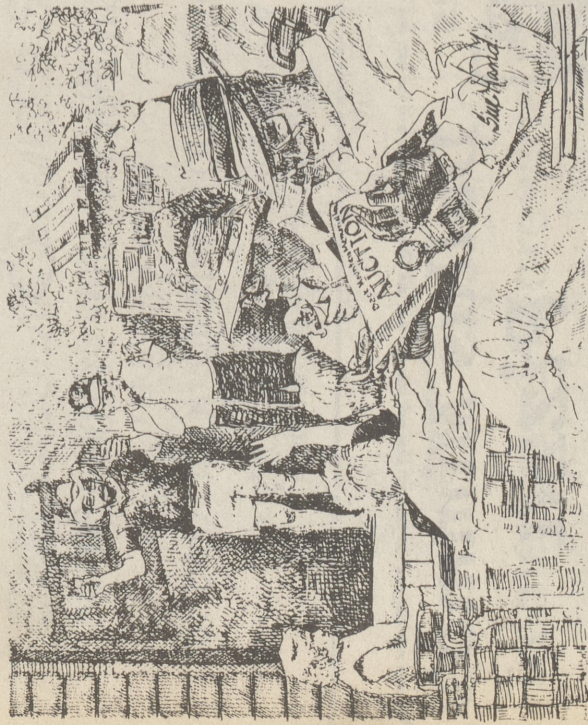

"Glassware collectors will find a large selection of nice pieces

Your Library Needs You!

The annual auction raises 25% of the library's operating budget. But there are more needs if the library is to continue serving a growing population. You can help, by donating funds, helping with the auction, or volunteering at the library.
