

Big 'D' gives Cook's the win in rec ball

Cook's Pharmacy used a swarming defense to nip The Lion Inc. 39-38 in the Dallas Borough Summer Basketball League last week. Jay Van Orden led Cook's with 17 while Dan Williams added 9.

Hein led the losers with 14. Cook's improved to 3-1 while the Lion dropped to 3-1.

The Rebels used Rich Davis's 19 points to overpower Jim-Jon 5-30. Dave Fosko added 10 points while John Thomas had 14 for the tomato men.

With the victory, the Rebels moved to 2-2 while Jim-Jon slipped to 0-5.

Hosey's had an offensive explosion and ripped the Fieldhouse 98-56. Jesse Martin poured in 31 points and Rick Pincofski had 22.

Tim Puz and Eddie Thomas has 19 for the losers who drop to 1-4. Hosey's remains unbeaten at 4-0.

Play continues on Monday and Wednesday nights at the Dallas Rec Center on Burndale Road.

Back Mountain 4 - Northwest 0

In a Senior League winner's bracket game, Sandy McCloud fashioned a two-hit gem, striking out 12 batters, to lead Back Mountain over Northwest. Mary Ann Selenski gave McCloud all the runs she would need with a solo home run. Selenski finished the contest with a pair of hits. Cari Cave got the other Back Mountain hit, a single.

Northwest 10 - Bob Horlacher 7

In a Senior League loser's bracket game, Bob Horlacher was eliminated with a tough 10-7 loss to Northwest. Nikki Farber, who had a fine tournament, smacked a bases-loaded double in the seventh inning for Bob Horlacher.

Bob Horlacher 25 - Wyoming/West Wyoming 7

In a Little League loser's bracket contest, the defending champions stayed alive with a big win over Wyoming/West Wyoming. Three players had four hits apiece for Bob Horlacher, who banged out 27 hits. Denise Kovaleski (triple, double), Stephanie Case (double) and Elicia Everetts all had four hits. Lindsay Faux, Sarah Rosentel, Roxanne Mahle and Laura Maslowski had three hits apiece for the winners. Carri Newberry was the winning pitcher.
