Living history at Sweetland

"Can't You Hear me Callin' Caroline?" a musical living history drama, will be presented at the Historic Sweetland Homestead, 885 Wyoming Avenue, Wyoming, July 16, 17, 23 and 24. Performances will be held at 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. each day.

The program, the fourth in a series of summer living histories at the Homestead which began in 1990, features a professional cast, who combine music, history and fun to bring to life the Summer of 1910. In this family oriented play, historical facts are intermingled with fictional characters like "cousin Caroline from Connecticut," who can't decide whether or not to marry her darling-but-less-than-dashing suitor, and the family members who scheme to get the couple together, or not. Visitors travel through the rooms of the historic house with the cast as the story unfolds. A special feature will be a peek at the second floor of the Sweetland Homestead which is slated for restoration.

Reservations are recommended and may be made by calling the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society at 823-6244. The cost of the performance is $4 for adults and $2 for children over 5. Group discounts are available.

The Sweetland Homestead, a historic house museum listed on the National Register of Historic Places, is administered by the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society.

Glen Summit Springs Water Co., Inc.

Spring Water From the Heart of Nature

Deep in the mountains of Northeastern Pennsylvania bubbles up the sparkling, crystal-clear water of Glen Summit Springs. For over 100 years, the water that comes from these natural springs has been famous for its sweetness, softness and purity.

In the early and mid-1900's, people traveled miles by railroad to visit beautiful Glen Summit on the Nescopeck Mountain and enjoy the refreshing water from Glen Summit Springs.

Today, you too can enjoy the same sparkling, pure water without having to travel far to find it. Glen Summit springs water is available to you by convenient home delivery...for as little as pennies a day.
