Back Mountain briefs

Lehman Township supervisors

At their meeting August 15, the Lehman Township supervisors:

- Opened bids for paving and tabled them for study. The list of roads to be paved hasn't been approved yet, according to road master Douglas Ide.
- Referred a zoning change application from Mary Ann Paugsch to change her land from residential to agricultural so that she can build a horse barn to the planning commission. A hearing on the request will be held September 19 at 7 p.m.

Legion committees to meet Aug. 23

On August 23, at 7 p.m. the scholarship and advisory committees will meet at The Dallas American Legion on Memorial Highway to discuss the Scholarship Golf Tournament to be held October 1, at The Four Seasons Golf Course in Exeter, with a Captain and crew format at a 1 p.m. shotgun start.

The committee is seeking donations of gifts to be presented at the dinner after the tournament and also sponsors for holes.

Anyone wishing any further information can contact the American Legion in Dallas or any committee members.

All monies from the event will be used towards technical scholarships which the American Legion in Dallas presents to vocational students from the local area.
