

Graduate info night at King's Aug. 29

King's College will host an information night Aug. 29 from 5 - 7:30 p.m. for students interested in graduate degrees in education offered by Temple University on King's campus.

The event will be held in Room 313 of The William G. McGowan School of Business on the corner of North River and Union Streets.

King's offers Temple graduate courses in education on King's campus, leading to a master of education degree or a doctor of education degree.

Principal and superintendent certification programs are also available.

The courses at King's are taught by members of the faculty at Temple and by adjunct faculty selected by Temple. Participants must finish their degrees at Temple.

For more information, contact the Center for Lifelong Learning at King's at 826-5865 or Temple University at (215) 204-8061.

Exploring careers

Ross Elementary used the theme "Careers" for their June 3 R.I.F. distribution.
