second touchdown pass, hauling in a 10-yarder in the second quarter to give the Mounts a 21-0 halftime lead. Defensive tackle Dave Townsend scored his first varsity touchdown when he recovered a touchdown in the end zone and Joe Noon closed out the scoring on a three-yard plunge in the final quarter. Jeff Kunkle kicked the first three extra-points for Dallas while Adam Hoover did the honors on the final two.

Despite the win, Jackson knows his team will have to play better if the Mountaineers are to repeat as champions.

"Our division is loaded," explained Jackson. "We're going to play hard week in and week out and definitely give a better effort than we did (Saturday). I thought our kids were a little tired late in the game. I'm going to make sure that doesn't happen again.

"But like I said, we did do some things well and we had some kids who played hard. We just need to work on some things and I'm sure we'll be fine."

Both Back Mountain teams return to the gridiron on Saturday afternoon with kickoffs set for 1 p.m. Dallas hosts Hanover Area while the Black Knights play Northwest. Both opponents are coming off huge losses last weekend. Hanover was pounded by West Scranton, 31-0, while Northwest was thrashed by Bishop O'Reilly, 46-0.

POWER POINTS OFFICIAL RULES

- Object of the game is to amass as many of the 120 possible points as you can. Simply review the week's schedule of games, listed on entry form, and decide which game you are surest of picking a winner in. Write the name of your projected winner on the 15-point line. If that team wins its game that week, you win 15 points. Write the name of your second surest winner on the 14-point line, and so on down to the 1-point line, which game you figure to be a toss-up. Next, fill in the tiebreaker, the total points scored by both teams in the week's Eagles or Steelers game. If this step fails to produce a winner, a drawing will be held among those contestants still tied. Decisions of the judge are final. The weekly winner of the contest will receive $750.
