My Fair Lady at Kirby

"My Fair Lady", arguably the world's greatest musical, will play the Kirby Center, September 30, at 8 p.m.

Tickets are still available at the Kirby Box office 826-1100, at $29.50, $25.50 and $17.50.

Adapted by Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe from Shaw's "Pygmalion," "My Fair Lady" is one of those delightful musicals which never loses its charm. The book remains very close to Shaw's original.

All the wonderful tunes are so in sync with the lyrics that you wonder how many hours, days or weeks Lerner and Loewe labored together to produce a score so tuneful, lyrics so literate, and to be able to translate the Shaw dramatic masterpiece into a Lerner & Loewe musical masterpiece, the kind of heartwarming production that is just not being staged today.

Hit song after hit song make up the score of "My Fair Lady" from "Wouldn't it Be Lovely" through "With a Little Bit of Luck", "The Rain in Spain", "I Could Have Danced All Night", "On The Street Where You Live", the rousing "Get Me To the Church On Time," the acerbic "Without You" to the wistful "I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face".

I COULD HAVE DANCED ALL NIGHT - The Kirby Center will present the popular musical My Fair Lady Sept. 30. Tickets are still available.
