

Orthodontist opens new Dallas office

Dr. George H. Nahas, D.D.S. has opened a new office on Main Street in Dallas, in a handsome new building where the former Hearthstone Pub once stood. Nahas had operated from an office in the Back Mountain Shopping Center since 1980. That office was open one day each week; the new office is now open two days weekly, and may be available more often if demand increases. Shown inside the new building are, seated, Marlene Rollman; standing from left, Kelly Kresge, Bev Motel, Brenda Hamersley, Dr. Nahas. Not pictured: Carol Truskowski, Theresa Beatty, Cheryl Liplis, Linda Gushka, Joelle DeLuca, and Dr. Thomas Donahue.

GAR 34-Lake-Lehman 20

Lake-Lehman couldn't stop GAR fullback Harold Jackson last Friday night, and he ran for 187 yards and three scores to lead the Grenadiers and hand the Black Knights their first loss of the season.

After trading touchdowns in the first quarter, GAR struck three times in the second quarter to establish a lead that couldn't be overcome. Mike Adamshick bulled in from 2 yards out for the first Lehman score. John Oliver's PAT gave Lehman a 7-6 lead, the only one they would have all night.

After a scoreless third quarter, Adamshick scored again on a three-yard run, followed by Oliver's kick to bring the score to 26-14. After GAR answered with a touchdown of their own, backup quarterback Mike Woronko hit Tim Waslick with an 18-yard scoring strike with only 15 seconds left in the contest.

Mike Pitcavage had another fine game in a losing cause, gaining 109 yards on 25 carries. Oliver left the game in the second half with a hamstring pull.

Lehman, which is now tied for second spot in Division B of the Wyoming Valley Conference, will host winless Crestwood Saturday, in a game starting at 1 p.m.
