

Brad Burnaford breaks ladies' winning streak

Brad Burnaford broke a two-week female winning string by submitting the highest local score in the fifth week of the Power Points PA football contest. Burnaford's 100 points were short of the statewide winner, Mark Tygel of State College, who tallied 113 of a possible 120 points. The average of 26 local winners in the state was 99 points, with a low of 84.

The Dallas Post, and a free month of HBO from Tele-Media, the co-sponsor of the contest. Should a local entrant win the statewide contest, he or she would receive $750 from Power Points, plus the local prizes. Entries for this week's contest must be deposited by 2 p.m., Friday. They may be dropped off at the office of The Dallas Post, at 45 Main Road, Dallas, or at Tele-Media on the Harveys Lake Highway.

Back Mountain Thunder U-12 ties East Mountain in travel league

POWER POINTS OFFICIAL RULES

- Object of the game is to amass as many of the 120 possible points as you can. Simply review the week's schedule of games, listed on entry form, and decide which game you are surest of picking a winner in. Write the name of your projected winner on the 15-point line. If that team wins its game that week, you win 15 points. Write the name of your second surest winner on the 14-point line, and so on down to the 1-point line, which game you figure to be a toss-up. Next, fill in the tiebreaker, the total points scored by both teams in the week's Eagles or Steelers game. If this step fails to produce a winner, a drawing will be held among those contestants still tied. Decisions of the judge are final. The weekly winner of the contest will receive $750.
- Any entry form that does not contain a name, address, etc. will be disqualified.
- Entries that fail to select a team in each and every game will be disqualified, as will entries that fail to differentiate between the Rams and Raiders of Los Angeles, the Jets and Giants of New York and Pitt and Pittsburgh.
- No points are awarded on tie games or in case any game is not played for any reason during its scheduled week.
- Entering POWER POINTS constitutes permission by contestant for his or her name and photograph to be used for news and reasonable promotional purposes at no charge.
- Employees of this newspaper and their immediate families are ineligible to participate.
- No purchase necessary. Facsimile game entry forms will be accepted and are available at all outlets of participating co-sponsors. Enter contest by dropping entry forms into POWER POINTS container at participating co-sponsors.
- Weekly deadline for entry will be 2 p.m. Fridays except when noted otherwise on weekly entry form.
- Neither this newspaper nor any co-sponsor will be responsible for illegible entry forms or those lost, stolen or damaged in any way.
- Limit one entry per person per week. Each entry must represent the original work of one entrant: "group" entries, "systems" or other attempts to enter multiple entries will be disqualified.
- Contestants must have reached the age of eight (8) by the Sunday of any week's play.
