

Area students are named to Penn State Student Senate

Ten Back Mountain students have been elected to the Student Senate at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus.

The Senate is the voting body of the Student Government Association (SGA) and the senators serve as representatives of student interests on campus.

Senate members communicate student concerns to the administration, review new student organizations for recognition, coordinate activities of all campus clubs, represent the campus at student conferences and allocate Student Activity Funds to registered clubs.

Local Student Senate members are, Joe Pudlosky, Hunlock Creek; Nicole Steltz, Dallas; Sean Reynolds, Dallas; Michelle Yantz, Hunlock Creek; Raquel Evans, Shickshinny; Jaime Barbacci, Dallas; Jason Getz, Wyoming; Valerie Marino, Shavertown; Bob Guilford, Wyoming and Elvin Rodriguez, Harveys Lake.

Dallas Citizens' Advisory Committee to meet

The Dallas Citizens' Advisory Committee held its monthly meeting on October 6, to review the Middle States Evaluation and Addendum that was completed in May, 1994.

A question and answer period followed with guests Frank Galicki, Dallas Senior High principal, and Dr. Gilbert Griffiths, assistant superintendent.

In order to solicit community input, the Citizens' Advisory Committee has established a Dallas P.O. Box. Dallas area residents can submit their questions and concerns to: The Dallas Citizens' Advisory Committee, P.O. Box 65, Dallas, PA 18612.

The committee's next meeting will be November 10 at 7 p.m. at the Dallas Senior High School.
