Photos on display 'til Dec. 9

An exhibit of black and white photographs by Philip A. Dente, "Names and Things," is on display at the MacDonald Art Gallery at College Misericordia through December 9.

Dente used a toy camera bought at a flea market to create the soft center images of the photos. Each negative had to be processed individually and printed according to the effect produced by the camera's single shutter speed, resulting in the impressions the artist sought.

Dente holds a Master of Fine Arts degree in photography from Ohio University. His work has been included in numerous shows in the eastern United States since 1980.

This exhibition is dedicated to the memory of Amanda Josephine Weed 1990-1994.

The MacDonald Art Gallery is free and open to the public year round. Gallery hours are Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 12-5 p.m. and 6-8 p.m.; Friday, 12-5 p.m.; and Saturday and Sunday from 1-5 p.m.

For more information call 674-6250.

SOFT IMAGES - Photographer Phillip Dente used a toy camera and special effects to capture the soft images of places and things on film. His photos are on exhibit at College Misericordia's MacDonald Gallery.
