Make-A-Wish helps area girl

The Make-A-Wish Foundation of Northeastern Pennsylvania will reach a milestone on Saturday, Nov. 12 as it grants its 100th wish to an area child.

Carrie Booth, 15, of Trucksville who suffers from Spina Bifida, will have her wish granted by the foundation: a hydraulic lift gate and home wheelchair ramp.

To raise the $4,000 to make Carrie's dream come true, the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Northeastern Pennsylvania has teamed up with T.G.I. Friday's.

On November 12, a percentage of the entire day's patron receipts at T.G.I. Friday's Kidder Street Restaurant will be donated to the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Further information on the foundation can be obtained by calling the Regional Office at 829-3235 or by writing to 480 Scott Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18702.

Beth Hartshorne earns three awards in dance

Beth Hartshorne of Orange recently earned awards in solo, duo, and group dance at the Precision Unlimited Dance Competition at the Mountain Laurel Resort in the Poconos.

Beth won second place with her solo pointe number, "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy".

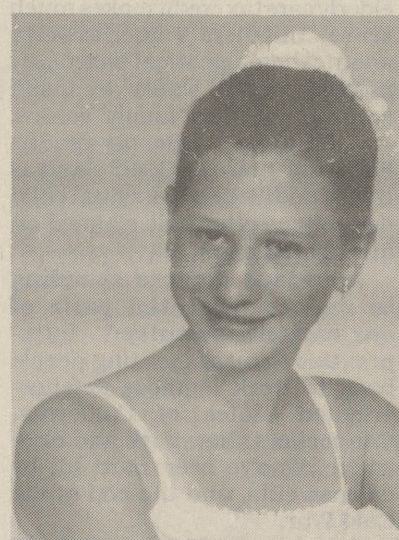

She and her duo partner, Kara Shillinski of Wilkes-Barre won first place in the lyrical category.

They won second place in the tap division and the Duo-Trio award, awarded to the highest scoring duo or trio of the entire competition.

Beth is also a member of the Bobettes, a dance company under the direction of Barbara Woronko Anzalone at the Northeastern Pennsylvania Academy of Dancing in Kingston.

Beth is a ninth grade student at Dallas Senior High School. She is the daughter of Rev. Don and Sharon Hartshorne and has a brother, Don, attending Penn State.

Helping other kids

Harveys Lake resident Janet Silver, a 7th grade student at Lake-Lehman Middle School, volunteered to help the staff and volunteers of the Catherine McAuley House prepare for a Halloween Party.

Janet and her mother volunteer at the House, where a newly renovated play area officially opened its doors for the first time. The Catherine McAuley House, sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy, provides shelter, food, clothing, and services to homeless women and their children in Luzerne County.

Janet and a young friend take a break at the Halloween party.
