

Barbershoppers seek male vocalists for holiday concert

Men of Wyoming Valley are invited to participate in a special "Christmas Carol Chorus" designed to bring notes of harmony to patients of local hospitals and nursing homes mid-point in December, sponsored by the Wilkes-Barre Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America (SPEBSQSA). Traditional Christmas carols will be used with music sheets provided. Weekly rehearsals will be held Monday nights, 8:30 - 9:30 p.m. at St. Clement and Peter Episcopal Church, 165 Hanover Street, Wilkes-Barre. The chorus will sing Sunday, Dec. 18, in the afternoon and Mondah, Dec. 19, early evening hours. Information inquiries may be made to William Zdancewicz, 829-2631.

Lehman UM Women to meet Nov. 22

The regular monthly meeting of the Lehman United Methodist Women will be held at the church at 7:30 p.m. November 22. The program will be presented by Janet Eddy and Judith Dawe. Ruth Johnson, Evelyn Ide and Judith Dawe are hostesses.

Peace Pole set up

"May Peace Prevail on Earth" is the inscription written in four different languages on the new Peace Pole outside Mercy Center in Dallas. Mercy Associates presented it to the Sisters of Mercy, Dallas Regional Community, as a symbol of their common bond to seek peace by working for justice through Mercy. Friends gathered for an official blessing of the pole on September 25. For more information about how to erect a Peace Pole, write to the Peace Pole Project, 3239 Sacramento Street, San Francisco, CA 94114, (415) 563-9836.

Junior League starts fundraiser

The Junior League of Wilkes-Barre Provisional Class will sell printed Holiday Cards to the public for $10 each. The proceeds will then go towards the purchasing of toys for the needy children of our community. For more information or to purchase a Holiday Card, please contact the League Office at 288-4962.

Lady Toby Lodge makes decorations

Sister Jean Evans and the women of Lady Toby Rebekah Lodge #514 met at Lehman lodge hall November 8 to make colorful turkeys for the residents of the Maple Hill Nursing Home. Six women were present to help make and complete the turkeys, which were delivered to Maple Hill by Sisters Rebecca Plotl and Jean Evans.

Girl Scouts to serve hunters' breakfast

In an ongoing effort to raise funds for their trip to Europe this coming June, Girl Scout Troop #622 will again hold an all-you-can eat hunters breakfast at Pizza Perfect on Carverton Road in Trucksville, November 28, from 3 a.m. to 8 a.m. The menu will include ham, eggs, hash browns, toast, bagels, coffee, tea and juice. The cost is $4 for advance sale tickets, $4.50 at the door. Tickets are available from anyone in the troop or by calling Jamie at 696-3595. Hunters will also be able to bring a thermos and fill it for a "buck." This is the third year the breakfast has been held. It has very successful, largely due to the generosity of everyone at Pizza Perfect, who donate the building and their time, and very hungry customers.

Prayer seminar at Dallas High School

Every Home For Christ will host a "Change The World School of Prayer", featuring a discussion of 30 aspects of practical praylife, shared in seven unique lectures, Nov. 19, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Dallas High School. C. Richard Smith, U.S. Field Representative, who has recently returned again from the CIS where he has been instructing pastors and providing them with Bibles and Christian books, will direct this seminar. Persons with questions should call Rev. Dan Miller at 696-4397.
