Patel accepted in special program

Ashish Vimal Patel, of Shavertown, a sophomore at Franklin and Marshall College, is participating in the St. Joseph Hospital Emergency Medical Preceptorship Program, which provides students with the opportunity to observe the evaluation and treatment of patients in an emergency department.

The year-long preceptorship program consists of an orientation, regular observational visits to the emergency room and occasional group meetings.

Students sign up for regular two-hour shifts in the emergency room, usually under the guidance of their designated emergency medical physician. The program is open to all Franklin & Marshall students.

Patel, a 1993 graduate of Wyoming Seminary, is the son of Vimal and Amita Patel, Shavertown.

Savage is student of month

Jennifer Savage of Harveys Lake, a senior at Wyoming Seminary was recently recognized as the Kingston Lions Club Student of the Month for October.

Savage, the daughter of Atty. and Mrs. Peter Savage, Jr. of Harveys Lake, has been named to the Dean's List with high honors each term.

She was inducted into the Cum Laude Society last month, and was named as a Levi Sprague Fellow in recognition of her campus leadership.

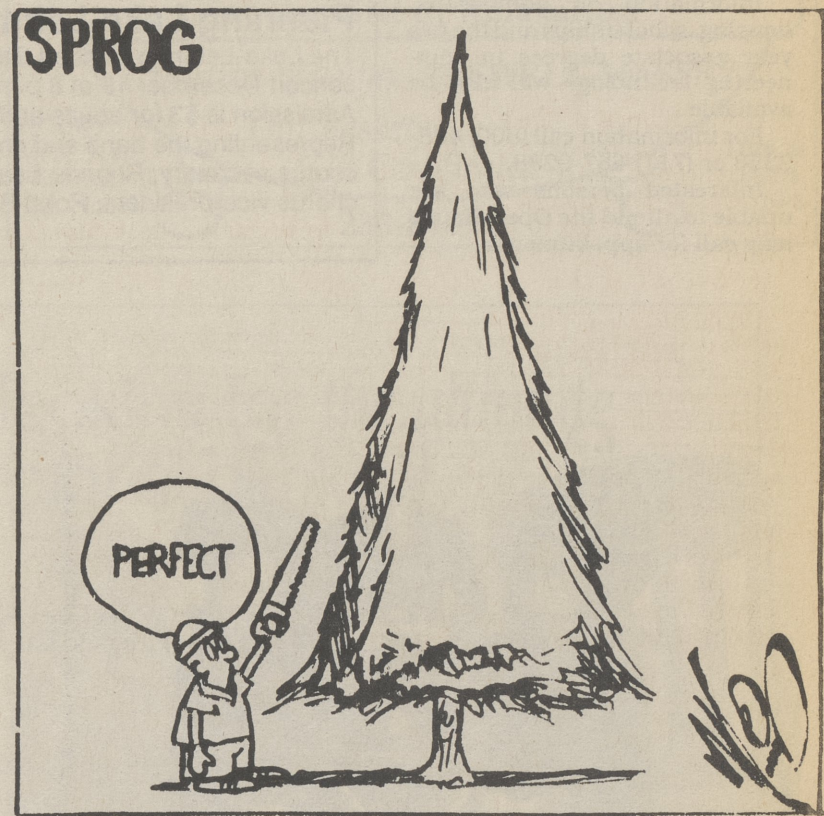

An Advanced Placement Scholar, she has been a member of the Wyoming Seminary Government since ninth grade and
