

Plashinski joins staff of Veterans' Medical Center

Kristin E. Plashinski has been named Vice President for Development at Veterans Memorial Medical Center.

She joins VMMC after having recently served as a consultant to the Fund Development Program at Saints Memorial Health System Foundation, Lowell, MA.

She has received the National Association of Membership Directors Award for her achievements in membership retention and increase, the highest in the history of the Wilkes-Barre Chamber, and the United Way Bronze Award for outstanding service to the community.

Her career also includes executive and consulting positions with the Pennsylvania Special Olympics, and the Boy Scouts of America.

At VMMC, she will be responsible for overseeing the philanthropic program, including annual giving, planned giving, memorial gifts, and other selected charitable programs supporting the Medical Center's needs.

Plashinski earned a bachelor's degree in human relations from the University of Pittsburgh, Bradford, and studied organizational management at College Misericordia, Dallas.

Innovative new course

Penn State faculty members have developed an interdisciplinary freshman seminar, "Mass Media and Society" which traces the effects on society of progress in communication technology from the 15th Century to the present.

About 40 students are enrolled in the course, which covers the growth of communications from the invention of the printing press to television and virtual reality.

The faculty who developed and are teaching the course are from left, Kathy Brennan, English; Priscilla Allison, speech communication; Harold Groff, telecommunications technology; Paul Schwartz, French and Bill Bachman, mass communications.
