Beth Ward to chair Make-a-Wish Foundation's ball

Dallas resident Beth Ward has been named chairperson of the 1995 Make-A-Wish Foundation of Northeastern Pennsylvania Gala Ball, to be held February 11 at the Victoria Inns, Pittston.

The theme of this year's black tie ball is "Give Your Heart to Make-A-Wish". Cocktails will begin at 6 p.m. with guest harpist Dianne O'Malley. Featured entertainment will be the local band "Hollywood".

The Make-A-Wish Foundation of Northeastern Pennsylvania is an 11-County regional that grants wishes to children who suffer from terminal illnesses or life-threatening medical conditions.

Currently 18 wishes of area children outstanding. All proceeds from the 3rd Annual Gala Ball will be used to grant these wishes.

Seating for the 1995 Make-A-Wish of NEPA Gala Ball is limited to 300, on a first come basis. Tickets for the event are $75 per person, with tables of 10 available.

Reservations for the Ball can be made by calling the Regional Office of Make-A-Wish at 829-3235 or by sending a check to 480 Scott Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18702.

Dances at Citrus Bowl show

Beth Hartshorne, a ninth grade student at Dallas Senior High School, was selected by audition from more than 1,000 dancers to be one of 24 advanced dancers featured in the Citrus Bowl Half-time Show in Orlando this year.

The advanced dancers performed to "Tutti Frutti" on both sides of the center stage.

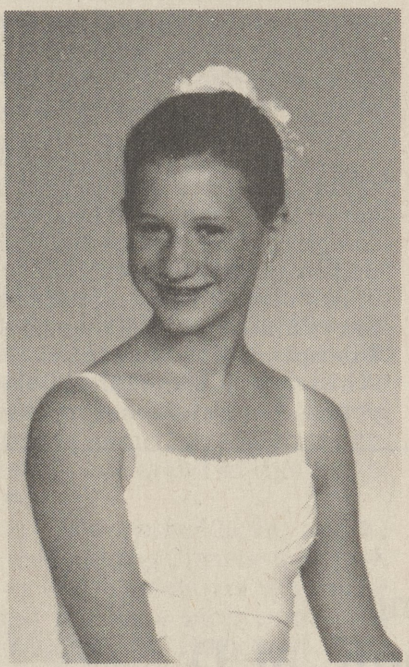

Beth was also asked to dance at the recognition banquet for the performers held at the Clarion Hotel.

Only three dance groups were chosen to perform at the banquet. Beth's group, "The Bobettes" from the Northeastern PA Academy of Dancing in Kingston, received a standing ovation for their dance, "Randy Lynn Rag."

Beth has studied dance for nine years with Barbara Woronko Anzalone.

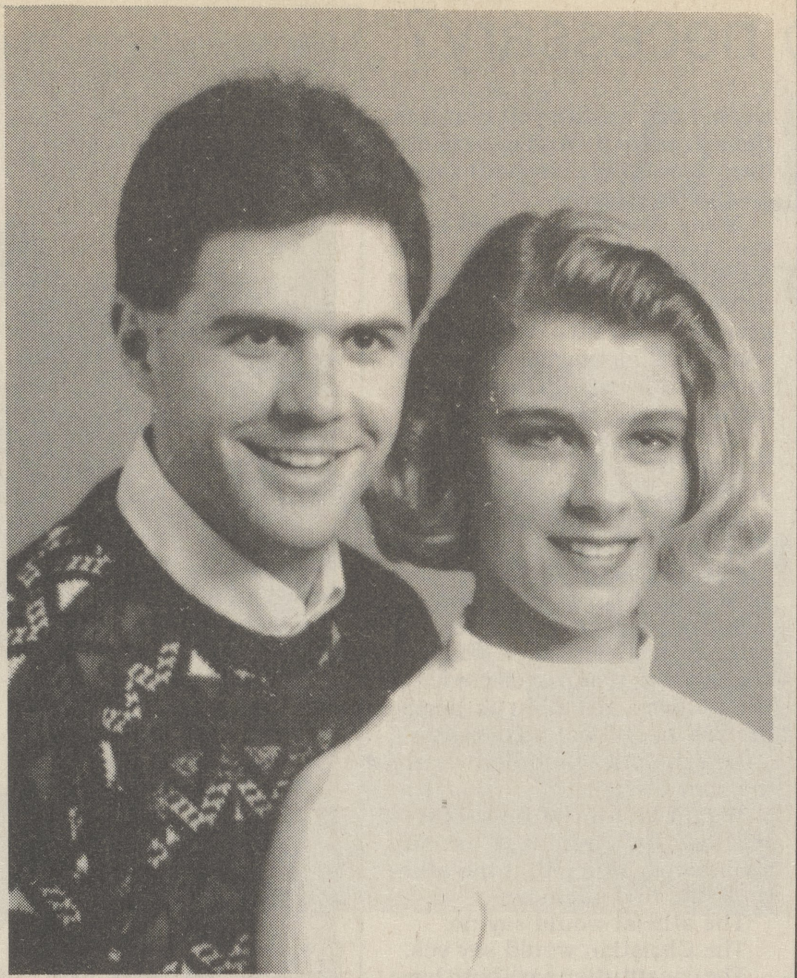

She has danced in four ballets and will be featured in a new ballet performed by the Children's Ballet Theater of Kingston and Northeastern PA Academy of Dancing this fall.

Beth is the daughter of Rev. Don and Sharon Hartshorne of Dallas. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Orange and Marion Hartshorne of Tamaqua. Her brother, Don, attends Penn State.

BETH HARTSHORNE
