Keystone Games begin February 9

The Keystone State Games 8th annual Winter Sports Festival will be held over two consecutive weekends in February. The alpine ski racing and freestyle skiing events will be held February 9-12, at the Montage Mountain Ski Resort, Scranton.

The ice skating competition, endorsed by the United States Figure Skating Association (USFSA) sanctioned and Ice Skating Institute of America (ISIA) will be held February 17-19, at the Ice-A-Rama in Wilkes-Barre.

The skiing events include the downhill, giant slalom, modified giant slalom, snowboarding, dual slalom and the moguls.

A new event to this year's sports festival is the First Timers' Race, for the first year skier who wants to learn and experience a times ski race.

A mini-course will be set-up at the bottom of the beginner's slope enabling new ski enthusiasts the opportunity to have a positive first experience at racing. A clinic focusing on the basics of a race-starting, maneuvering through the gates, and maintaining speed and technique - will be held prior to the event on February 12.

For more information and entry forms, contact the Keystone State Games office at 717-823-3164.
