

Penn State offers 6-part sales course

Penn State Wilkes-Barre will offer a 30-hour course in Personal Selling to run Wednesdays, March 18 through May 31, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., at the campus in Lehman. The non-credit course, part of the certificate program in professional selling and sales management, is intended for those who wish to pursue careers in sales or aspire to positions in sales management and those with marketing responsibilities who want to broaden their understanding of the work of a selling organization. The program consists of six courses and a Penn State certificate is awarded upon successful completion of the two required courses and two of the four elective courses.

Instructor is Russ Owens, entrepreneur and owner of Screen Printing U.S.A.

For more information, contact Penn State Wilkes-Barre's Continuing Education office at 675-9117.

Geologist visits class

As part of a study of current events, Dallas Middle School students in Ms. Ellen Boyer's sixth grade social studies class invited geologist James Ward, of American Asphalt, who worked with a group of Yale University students studying fossils at the company's Plains site. Ward discussed the work a geologist does and how fossils are located and dated. At the assembly were geologist, James Ward, and class member Kassy Yedesko.

Dallas sets dates for 1995 kindergarten registration

Kindergarten registration for the 1995-96 school year will be held in the Dallas Administrative Office Building, Church St., Dallas March 13-16, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

A birth certificate or other acceptable evidence of age must accompany each registration. A child must be five years of age on or before Sept. 30 to make him/her eligible for Kindergarten.

Those with last names beginning A-E will register March 13; those with F-K, March 14; those with L-R on March 15; and those with S-Z, March 16.

Children who will enter first grade, but did not attend the Dallas kindergarten program this past term may also register on March 16.

In addition to the registration, vision, speech and hearing screenings will be given.

The school officials must review the child's immunizations to be certain the child meets the standards as set by the state regarding immunizations. Parents are to bring all records of their child's immunizations. If the student's records do not meet the standards, he/she will not be able to attend school.
