Volunteer pet therapy dogs honored

During March, "Pets are Wonderful" month at the Meadows Nursing Center, special recognition was given to pet therapy dogs and their owners who regularly visit the Center.

Residents look forward to this activity that enables them to pet and talk to the dogs while bringing back pleasant memories. The SPCA provides monthly pet therapy visits at the center.

Honored were Lillian Harrison and her mother, Mae Gruver, with "Gretchen"; Margaret Preston, Meadows social service director with "Heidi"; Stella Riftenberg, resident; Marilyn Gregorski, Meadows volunteer director with "Princess" and SPCA and Meadows volunteer, Debbie Hutchins.

Absent from photo: Theresa Hutchins, SPCA and Meadows volunteer.
