technology, such as pagers and the new 911 system will make it obsolete."

The fire company has requested variances for side yard setbacks and parking requirements, which the Dallas Township zoning hearing board will consider at a public meeting April 10 at 7 p.m.

Zoning regulations require one parking space for every 100 square feet of building, Slocum said. The fire company doesn't need 68 spaces, since only five or six fire-fighters report to the fire hall when they're called out. The rest report directly to the scene, he said.

"We want to be prepared to give it the best fire protection possible."

Dallas Borough owns the fire company's present location, which the fire company uses rent-free.

Dallas Fire and Ambulance is funded entirely through its community fund drive and doesn't charge for its services, Slocum said.

"The entire community has given us tremendous support," he said. "And the sound management and long-term planning of the previous chiefs have helped make this next step a reality, so that we can continue to give the community the best possible emergency services."

As You Like It at Dallas April 7-8

Dallas High School will present William Shakespeare's As You Like It Friday and Saturday, April 7 and 8, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. This is the ninth Shakespearean production at Dallas.

One of Shakespeare's most popular comedies As You Like It is perfect for this spring season, especially since it captures a light-hearted spirit that combines folklore, love, and laughter with slapstick madness and lilting verse.

The play is under the direction of Donald Hopkins, assisted by Audrey Ide. Stage manager is senior Laura Seidel.

Shakespeare weaves together romance, court intrigue, and pastoral festivity to present the Forest of Arden as an inviting place where the folly of romance can have its day. Shakespeare focuses on the foolishness and incongruities of love ranging from the "sublime to the ridiculous," the romantic to the practical, the ideal to the absurd, reality to illusion; all with a lightness of humor that allows us to enjoy the fun without disillusionment.

The various plots provide a fitting introduction to Shakespeare because there is something for everyone to enjoy and appreciate. The set captures the spring madness by creating a fantasy world in which all of the action can take place. Join the fun and appreciate that "All the world's a stage and men and women merely players..."

Tickets for the Friday and Saturday night performances are $3.00 at the door.
