Student athletes support arena

If an arena is built in Luzerne County, would you support minor league hockey and how often?

Dallas athletes:

"Possibly, if there's nothing else to do."

Joe Ankenbrand "How expensive are the tickets? Before the strike I followed (the NHL) more."

Greg Hodne

"I'd go once or twice a month. About as often as I go to see the Red Barons."

Mike Vigione

"I've never been to a hockey game before, so I'd probably go a couple of times. It would be interesting." Jason Pieczynski

"I would go every day!"

Natalie Temperine "I would go all the time. I can't wait for it - they'd better vote yes."

Tanya Butler "Heck, yes. I love hockey. Hockey is a good sport."

"I wouldn't be here, but I would go. I played hockey for six years.' Sebastian Reger > (Sebestian is a senior exchange student from Germany) "I would go often."

"I would go, I think it's great idea. Sarah Misson

Lake-Lehman athletes

"I'd go quite a bit."

Jeremy Fleeger

"As often as I could."

Janine Marchakitus "Probably two or three times."

Sherry Clark "Whenever I had time to, I'd just like to see the game."

"They should have indoor field hockey. Marie Manzoni

"As often as I could."

Jeremy Baranowski

"Every day. I love hockey." Mike Trebendis

"When I had time. My brother played hockey." Faith O'Dell

"Yeah! I would go whenever I could. June Marchakitus"

"Pretty often."

Dave Rogers "It will be cool to see hockey. I'd go about every two weeks."

Mike Yablonski

Anthracite Scenic Trails to hold dinner Tom Sexton, Director of the Pennsylvania Chapter of the national Rails-to-Trails Conservancy, will present "Community Revitalization with Rail-Trails" at the second Annual Dinner meeting of the Anthracite Scenic Trails Association (ASTA) at 6 p.m. May 17, at Taste of Traditions Restaurant, 164 Main Street, Luzerne. The community is invited to hear about the economic and environmental significance of the Back Mountain Rail-Trail and other local, state and national rail-trail projects.

Dinner tickets are $14 each; to make reservations, call Judy Rimple at 283-9118 by May 14.

$500 TO $2,500 WEEKLY PROMOTING OUR HOT NEW PRODUCT

I can train and show you how to make $500 to $2,500/wk or more from your very first week with us. You supply desire, time, energy and enthusiasm.

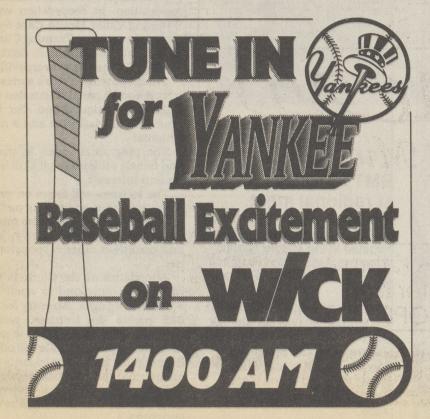

We supply an opportunity to:

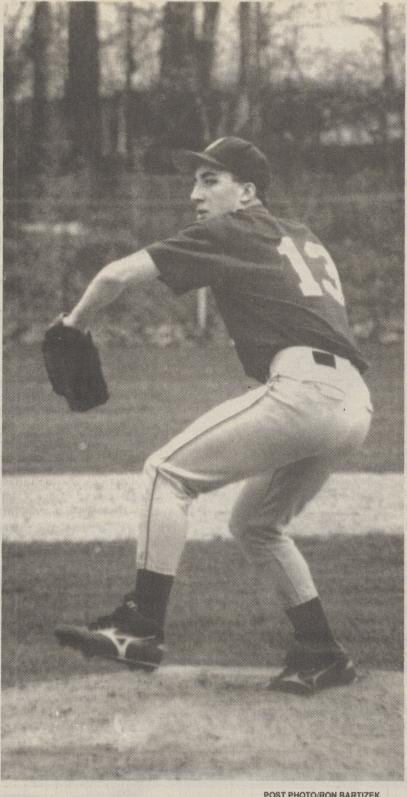

MAKE MONEY EVERY TIME SOMEONE BUYS GROCERIES.

Think about it - everyone has to buy groceries. Now for the first time ever you can select the coupons YOU WANT for the products you know you're going to buy. Consumers can cut their grocery bill by as much as 50%.

Become a part of the $300 Billion grocery coupon business. We are national distributor of a grocery coupon certificate book that lets the consumer select grocery coupons of their choice from our list of over 1200 National Name Brand Coupons - so their savings are guaranteed! We're looking for money motivated people. For more info.

> (717) 347-8199 Please Leave Message! 24 hrs.

POST PHOTO/RON BARTIZEK

Rough day

The Dallas Mountaineers let Coughlin jump to a five-run first inning lead, and never caught up last Thursday. Justin Jumper came in early to pitch two innings. He also went 2-for-2 at the plate, with an RBI.

King's slates sports camps cer, karate and girls' basketball summer camps this year.

King's College Girls' Championship Basketball, open to girls in grades five through 12 will run July 10-14 from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. in the Scandlon Physical Education Center. Players receive an evaluation report, camp certificate, free camp T-shirt, and free camp team photo and will attend lectures by outstanding regional basketball auithorities.

Cost is $125, and admission is limited to the first 150 applicants.

King's College Boys' and Girls' Soccer Camp runs 10-14 for players of all ages: July 17-21 for advanced players; and July 24-28 for co-ed high school players. 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Open to players ages 8 to 18. High school graduates are not elibible.

Participants will use the King's athletic fields at Highland Park. Registration fee is $95. Each camper will receive a free handstitched soccer ball and free camp T-shirt.

King's College The Masters Challenge Summer Karate Camp

King's College will sponsor soc- runs August 4, 5 and 6, is hosted by Master Gary Michak. Open to regional and national competitors ages 5 to 50, the camp inclines tournament competition, Katafighting-weapons, expression tournament rules, techniques, dynamic kicking and more. Cost is $250 and includes day camp, lodging, and three meals per day; $125 includes day camp and one meal per day. Space is limited. Late registrations received June 1 to July 1 will be assessed a 100 late fee. All lodging arrangements must be made in advance.

Camp participants are invited to use the college swimming pool, handball and raquetball courts, Eagle System Fitness Center and outdoor basketball courts, at no extra charge.

The lower level of the Sheehy Student Center features lounges with a large screen TV, snack Fir and game room.

For further information or a brochure, contact Alida Matusek, King's College Educational Conference Center, at 826-5807.

Hot about science

Dallas Middle School students recently attended an assembly, "HOT and COLD," given by a representive of the Franklin Institute of Philadelphia, who demonstrated the effects of extreme hot and cold temperatures on different objects. Enjoying the assembly were Sandy Kuniskas, Nathan Jones, Wm. Smith, Franklin Institute; Jennifer Coolbaugh and Joseph

Mile Run/Walk

for Children's Services

Saturday, May 20, 1995

WYOMING VALL

STARTING TIMES:

9:30 a.m. - Walkers and Wheelchair

participants

10:00 a.m. - Runners

10:10 a.m. - Children's Fun Run

Pre-registration Fee: $8.00 Postmarked by Tuesday, May 16

RACE DAY REGISTRATION FEE: $10.00 Registration fee includes a complimentary t-shirt and amenities.

Race Day registration will take place at 8:00 a.m. in the Nesbitt Medical Arts Building Auditorium, 534 Wyoming Avenue, Kingston.

FREE CHILDREN'S FUN RUN Ages 4 - 6 and 7 - 9

All Fun Run participants must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

First overall male and female finishers

• 1st and 2nd place in each age category • 1st and 2nd place wheelchair participants • Ribbons to all Fun Run participants

Awards program and prize drawing will immediately follow the race.

ATTENTION ALL RUN/ WALK PARTICIPANTS

Race packets and t-shirts can be picked up in the Nesbitt Medical Arts Building Auditorium, 534 Wyoming Avenue, Kingston, on Friday, May 19 from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m., or Race Day, Saturday, May 20 at the following times: Walkers and Wheelchair participants from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m.; Runners from 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.; and Fun Run participants from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. Identification tags must be worn by all run, walk and wheelchair participants.

1995 Five Mile Run/Walk for Children's Services Registration Form Please print Name:

Address: Birthdate:____ Shirt Size:(L, XL, XXL)_

Please Check One: □Walker □ Wheelchair Participant Runner ☐ Fun Run Participant

In consideration of the acceptance of my entry, I, intending to be legally bound, do hereby, for myself, my heirs, my executors, and administrators, waive, release and discharge any and all rights and claims which I may have, or which may hereafter accrue to me against Wyoming Valley Health Care System and any and all sponsors or promoters, and any and all injuries suffered by me while participating in and traveling to and from this event.

Signature (Parent's signature if entrant is under 18)

COURSE

Wheel-measured 5 mile layout over paved roads of Kingston and Forty Fort. Traffic controlled, split times at 1 and 3 miles, digital display clock at finish. Race results scored by Insta-Results.

Please detach and send with $8.00 entry fee to:

5 Mile Run/Walk for Children's Services

Wyoming Valley Health Care System

P.O. Box 1072 Kingston, PA 18704

Please make checks payable to:

Wyoming Valley Health Care System