AHOY, THERE! - William Pint and Felicia Dale will present an evening of new and traditional songs of the sea at the Chicory House May 26

Songs of the sea at Chicory House

William Pint (rhymes with "flint") and Felicia Dale will hoist sail and set their course for uncharted waters with a cargo of nautical music and song, at the Chicory House in Wilkes-Barre, May 26 at 8 p.m.

The nonprofit, volunteer-operated Chicory House holds its coffeehouse concerts in the Community Room of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, South Franklin Street, across from Boscov's, in downtown Wilkes-Barre. (The Chicory House is not affiliated with Saint Stephen's.) Doors will open for the concert at 7:30 p.m.

With vocals and guitar, mandola, Irish pennywhistles, percussion and the exotic sounds of vielle-a-rou or hurdy-gurdy (the ancient wheel-driven fiddle-like instrument), the vivacious, musically striking Seattle duo William Pint and Felicia Dale bring a notably energetic and contemporary spirit to their material.

Drawing on several cultures, Pint & Dale perform traditional and modern music and songs reflecting the immense vitality of those who live and work on the sea. Their music fits comfortably into the world of modern folk, rock and popular song, while retaining the myth, narrative, rhythm, rhyme and lyric associated with the days of the tall ships.

Pint & Dale have won an ardent following across the United States, Canada, Great Britain and Holland with their recordings and appearances at festivals and concerts. Their three albums will be available at their May 26 Chicory house concert.
