what they believe, admire others' accomplishments and take pride in their own achievements. "Love those around you and love yourself too," she said. "If your spirit is eager and free, then you know what it means to live life to its fullest."

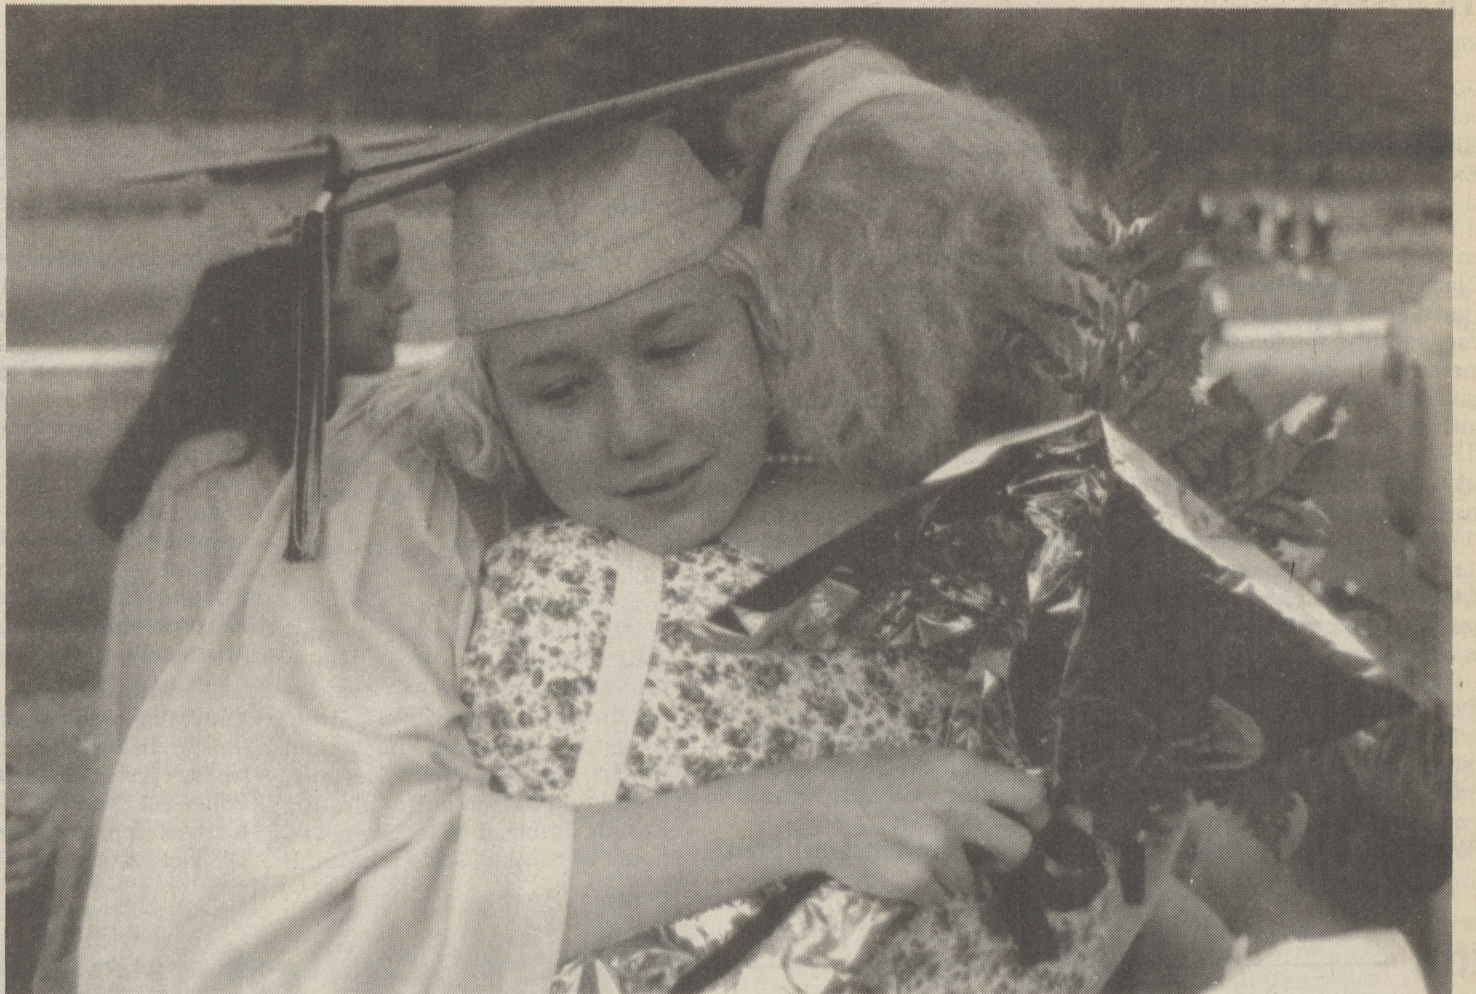

Student council president Allison Milunic reminisced about friends, parties and trips and reminded classmates to remember their accomplishments as they become "musicians, doctors, world travelers and a West Point cadet."

Class members became "the glue, the stronghold, the structure of this high school," she said. "We should be extremely proud of the charismatic attitude we have projected to our underclassmen."

She concluded by reminding classmates to never give up their motivation and never cease to give of themselves.

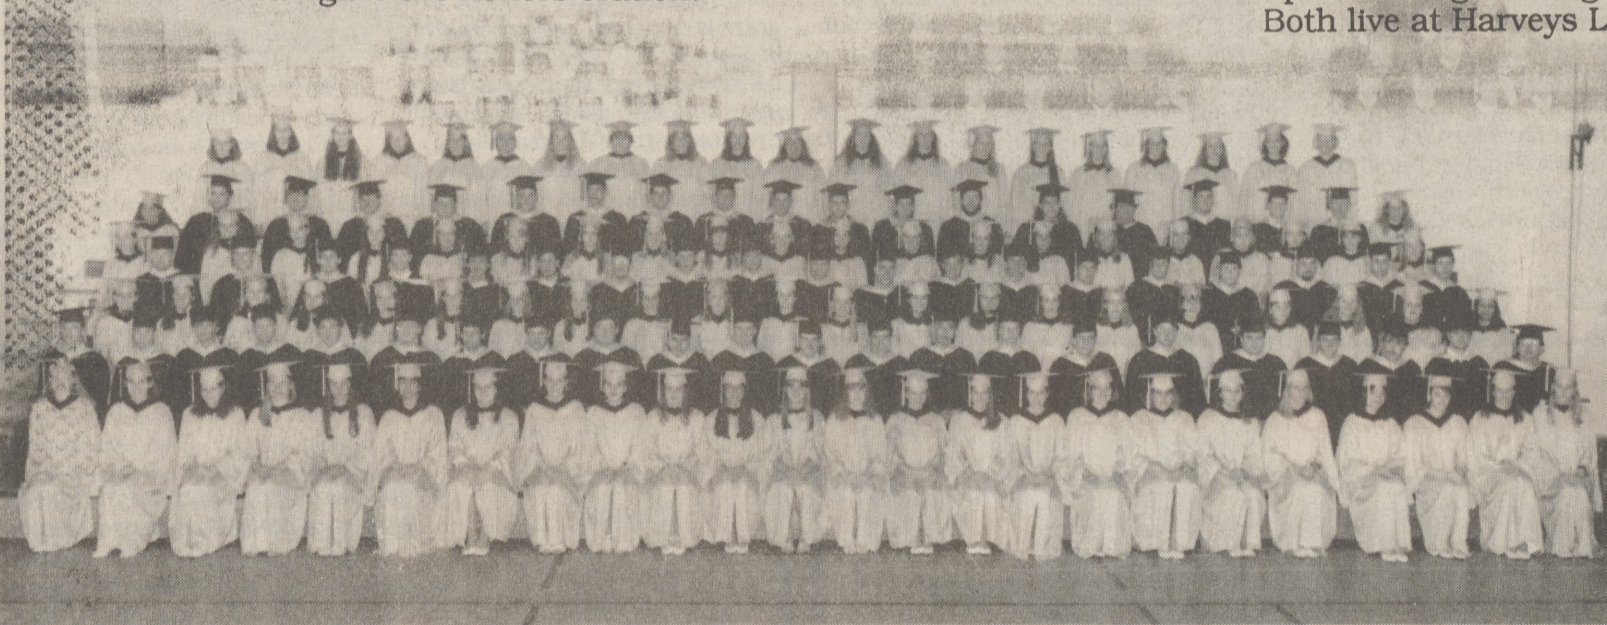

Jennifer Feehan gave the honors oration.

April Hodik got a hug from her grandmother, Verna Day. Both live at Harveys Lake.
