

First Rosendo E. Santos concert held

The first annual Rosendo E. Santos Concert for Young Musicians was held on May 31, by 27 young artists, age eight through senior high.

Allison Everett and Joe Thomas received special awards for original essays.

Angelo Nudo and Jesse Lynch received awards for original musical compositions presented that evening. A scholarship Award for excellence in music achievement was granted to Lisa Lynch a Wyoming Seminary senior who will attend Tanglewood Institute in Boston this summer. Invited to perform as guest artists were Mrs. Maggie Bell Crispell, a former student of Professor Santos, and Dr. Erik R. Santos, son of Mr. Santos, now assistant professor at Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

This concert was designed to give opportunities to young musicians to express their talents and will be held again next spring.

Trustees for the Santos Fund are Mrs. Andrea Bogusko, Ms. Michele Millington and Pastor Harriet L. Santos. The concert honors the memory of Rosendo E. Santos, Jr., professor at Wilkes University from 1968-94 and choir director-organist for churches.
