

College appoints interim president

The Board of Trustees at College Misericordia has named Albert Bernt Anderson, Ph.D., of Plymouth, Minnesota, as the interim president of the Dallas college, said Dr. Sarah Ellen Lenahan, '68, Board chair.

Dr. Anderson will replace Carol A. Jobe, Ph.D., who announced her resignation as Misericordia president on Friday, June 9, effective June 30.

Dr. Anderson will begin a two-year term as interim president on Monday, July 10. During his tenure, the College will conduct a nationwide search for a permanent president, Dr. Lenahan said.

"We are very pleased that Dr. Anderson accepted our invitation to serve as interim president," Dr. Lenahan said. "His 32-year career in high education will serve Misericordia well."

Dr. Anderson said he and his wife Anita are looking forward to joining the College Misericordia community.

"I am delighted and honored by the Misericordia Board of Trustees' decision and proud to have a part in furthering Misericordia's mission," he commented.

Sister Maureen McCann, RSM, president of the Sisters of Mercy Dallas Regional Community, said the sisters, who founded Misericordia in 1924 and sponsor the College, are pleased to welcome Dr. Anderson to Misericordia.

"We are delighted by the appointment of Dr. Albert Anderson as interim president," Sister McCann, RSM, said. "We believe that he can further the mission of the College by moving Misericordia from its present point of growth to a new level of excellence in higher education."

Dr. Anderson is a member of the Registry for Interim College and University Presidents, an organization which provides experienced presidents for limited periods of time to colleges and universities across the country. The Registry, which is run by Thomas H. Langevin and Associates, Inc., of Lady Lake, Florida, lists 33 former college and university presidents who are available to serve as interim presidents. Other former presidents on the registry are available for consultation.

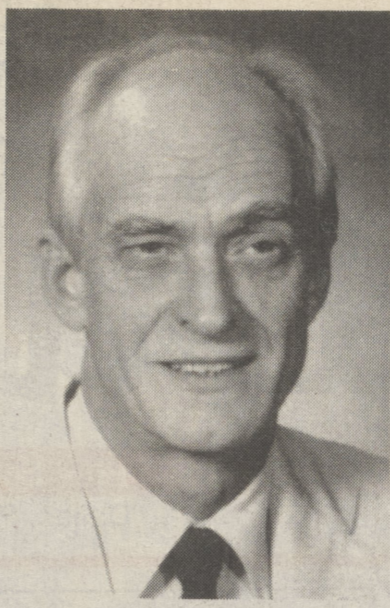

According to Dr. Lenahan, "The Registry's placement policies state that the interim presidents listed with the Registry shall have had no previous connection with the institution to be served; that the interim president will be appointed for a set period of time; and the interim president will not be a candidate for the permanent presidency."

Since 1990, Dr. Anderson has served as director of the Restoration and Endowment Fund, Basilica of St. Mary in Minneapolis, and as managing partner of Anderson/Swenson Inc., a consultant firm specializing in strategic planning management and funding, located in Minneapolis.

Dr. Anderson also has served as vice president and director of development, planning and administration at the University of Minnesota/Foundation; as director of development for the Hubert H. Humphrey Institute of Public Affairs; as vice president for institutional advancement at Luther College, Decorah, Iowa; as president of Lenoir-Rhyne College, Hickory, North Carolina; as provost of the Tri-College University in Fargo, North Dakota and Moorhead, Minnesota; and as a professor of philosophy at various colleges in Minnesota.

His degrees include a Ph.D. from Harvard University, a master of arts degree from the University of Minnesota, master of divinity degree from Luther Theological Seminary in St. Paul, and a bachelor of arts degree from Concordia College, Moorhead, Minnesota.

Dr. Anderson has published many articles on philosophy and religion, and has completed a book to be published next year by the Indiana University Press.

He also received numerous fellowships and scholarships, including the Danforth Teaching Fellowship, and has been chosen for membership in the American Council of Learned Societies.

Dr. Anderson and his wife Anita are the parents of five married children.

Fifth Brennan tourney drew a full slate

A full slate responded to the Joe Brennan Memorial Tournament held last Friday at Four Seasons Golf Course in Exeter.

Winners in the championship flight for the second year running was the team of Simonds, Sheridan, Jones and Jones. Womens flight was the Wyoming Valley Country Club team of Coburn, Symons, Kotch and Kempinski. Bob Paley fired a boomer shot to win longest drive on #1 and also placed closest to the pin on hole #8. Maureen Moran of Huntsville's eagle eye gave her closest to the line on hole 17.

First flight winners were Mike Popson, Steve Mucha, Joe Mucha and John Wouchek. Second flight, Tom Dougalis, Martha Dougalis, Bob Kachmar and Nick Krutz.

An avid golfer, Joe Brennan was actively involved in St. Therese's parish and was one of the founders of the Shavertown church's golf tournament beginning in 1991. Following his death in 1993, the committee renamed the event in his honor. The annual tournament has grown to become a successful fund raiser for the parish.

Property tax rebate period extended

The filing deadline for property tax and rent rebate applications has been extended until Dec. 31.

The program benefits eligible people 65 and older, widows and widowers 50 and older and people with disabilities 18 and older.

There is a household income limit of $15,000 to be eligible for the rebate. People can receive a rebate of up to $500 for property tax or rent paid in 1994.

Rebate application forms are available from area legislators' district offices, area agencies on aging and senior centers or by calling the state Revenue Department at 1-800-772-5246.
