the bottom of the fourth. Eric Randazzo's triple off Domzalski scored the game's final run. His one-out shot to right center scored Reeves in the sixth inning.

Domzalski picked up the win in relief of Moyer. He gave up all three West Pittston runs on three hits. He also walked five and struck out two in 4 2/3 innings of work.

Moyer went through the West Pittston line-up one time before being lifted in favor of Domzalski. The southpaw threw a lot of pitches during his 1 1/3 innings on the mound.

Moyer walked two and struck out two while allowing just one hit. He escaped damage in the first by striking out West Pittston's Kevin McHale with the bases jammed and turned the ball over to Domzalski with two on and one out in the second. Domzalski got the first two batters he faced to hit into force plays and kept the score tied at zero.

Bucha, who scored twice in the game, got the only Back Mountain hit off relief pitchers Brian Wolcott and Joe Falzone.

Bicking also scored twice and stole a base while Colin McHale drove home two and stole a base.

Back Mountain beat Nanticoke Monday, and American came out ahead of Mayflower.

Logomaster comeback falls short in state final

The Logomaster co-ed softball team won six consecutive games in the loser's bracket to record its second consecutive runner-up finish at the Pennsylvania ASA Co-Ed Class B state tournament, July 8-9 in Lancaster.

Logomaster, which competes in the Wilkes-Barre Rec Sunday League, lost its opening game to defending state champion Shiderly Enterprises, 15-2, but reeled off six straight wins to meet Shiderly's in the championship round for the third straight year.

Logomaster was looking to duplicate the 1993 tournament when it beat Shiderly's twice in the finals to capture the state championship. It wasn't to be, however, as the locals lost, 17-9 in the finals.

Kevin Ball was the team's top hitter with a .600 average followed by Bill Vivian (.583), Scott Crispell (.583) and Lisa Gigliello (.545).

After the opening round loss, Logomaster saw some familiar faces when they battled Keystone Truck Caps of Tunkhannock in the loser's bracket. Ball had three hits and Vivian, Gigliello, Joann Matt and Nikki Dibble all added two hits as Logomaster won, 8-2.

Another familiar foe awaited as Logomaster played league rival Halftime Lounge. Vivian led the offense with three hits, while Gigliello and Chris Howell had two each. Cathy Valonis chipped in with a hit and a run scored to help Logomaster to a 10-8 win.

Vivian continued his hot hitting with four more safeties in Logo's 15-5 win over Scrapper's Restaurant. Ball and Crispell had three hits each, while Patti Reed, Howell and player/coach Dave May had two hits.

Gigliello led the attack with three hits and Joey Sickler added a pair in a 12-4 win over the Dirty Dozen, which concluded Saturday's action and moved Logomaster into the final four.

Logomaster opened Sunday's play with a 10-9 win over Selinsgrove Moose Lodge. Vivian had three hits while Debbie Crispell, Ball, Reed and May all had two hits.

Logomaster advanced to the finals with an 11-7 win over Pleasant Oil, thanks to a six-run first inning. The team will advance to the Central Atlantic Regional Tournament next month.
