

Kings of the Back Mountain

The Back Mountain National all-stars topped BMT American July 12, to claim the unofficial Back Mountain championship. The loss eliminated American from the playoffs. National was knocked out when they lost to Plains Friday for the second time in the playoffs. In photo at right, Darrell Evans was tagged out at third by Justin Bicking after smacking a line drive off the right field fence. Below, left, Randy Knappman fired away for American. Below right, J.B. Bucha raced in to grab a short fly to center as left fielder Keith Sprau ran to cover.

Pocono scenes

Kiwanis honors Joan Conrad

Dallas Kiwanis Club members honored Joan Conrad, president of the entire youth baseball program for Back Mountain children. Working with league officers and board of directors, she organized a minor league program for 8 and 9 year old players; a mandatory coaches clinic and added major changes in purchasing of equipment and maintenance materials for the softball field. Joan received a plaque from Kiwanis officials for her dedication to the program held on June 19, 1995. Presenting the plaque, is Robert Dolbear, past president of the Dallas Kiwanis Club.
