

Dr. Hozempa attends Optometric Congress

Dr. Stanley T. Hozempa of Shavertown has just returned from the 1995 American Optometric Association Congress in Nashville. Optometrists, their families and guests from throughout the United States and several other countries attended the meeting, which included business sessions, continuing education lectures and an exhibit hall of ophthalmic equipment.

Dr. Hozempa attended continuing education lectures on pediatric comprehensive eye examination, cataracts, age-related macular degeneration and binocular vision and learning disabilities.
